Faculty

Teachers and students are the backbone of any school. Teachers at Robert E. Lee are the "investors in the future."

"Participation" is a key word for Lee's faculty. They participate in the classroom and devote many hours after school to sponsor clubs and aid in all of the extra-curricular activities.

Most students identify teachers with the classroom--so, this year the TRAVELER Staff presents "Teachers and their Hobbies."

Faculty Editors:
Peg Barry
Carol Tyson

During an afternoon conference, Principal A. Kenneth Flory discusses many of the school's activities with Mr. Mike Morrow, vice principal.

Sports Occupy Top Officials' Leisure

Inspecting the entangled line and inner tube, Mr. Mike Morrow, new vice principal and Student Council sponsor, relates the tale of "the one that got away." He is the original week-end angler who seems as natural in fishing surroundings as he does in conference with students.

A man with little time, Dr. Virgil Blossom, gets in a few practice shots between conferences.

At the Open House and Mexican Dinner, PTA'ers and Mr. Flory discuss future plans for the school year with Dr. Virgil T. Blossom, superintendent of North East Independent School District.

An avid hunter and sports enthusiast, Principal A. Kenneth Flory sights through his rifle on a fall hunting expedition. During his spare moments, Mr. Flory is apt to be found with a gun in his hand stalking his prey.

At the helm for 1963-64, Lee's top administrators include Dr. Virgil T. Blossom, superintendent of North East Independent School District; Mr. A. Kenneth Flory, principal, and Mr. Mike Morrow, vice principal.

All veterans at Lee, the three officials strive to maintain the high standards established by Lee faculty and students through the high school's six year history.

Fleeting Glimpses of Our Faculty . . .

Preparing for a Christmas party, Mrs. Mary Lou Davis slices cake for her health class.

Helping to distribute Christmas cheer, Joe Guerrero loads gifts from Lee advisories for needy families.

At the Howdy Dance, Mr. Mike Morrow combines chaperoning with baby-sitting.

While holding jackets and mums, Mr. and Mrs. Reid Sellers enjoy the half-time show at the Highlands game.

In an interview with Coach Tom Jungman, Mrs. Bobbie Abbott gathers facts for the baseball brochure.

Christmas time brings Mr. Marion Rodman a chess set from the band.

Exams find Mrs. Marilynn Drever, Miss Florence Stravorowski and Miss LaNelle Uselton grading tests.

Mrs. Jean Johnson, Senior Class sponsor, arranges Stratford Ball flowers for display in the office.

Among teachers who gave freely of time to help with dance decorations was Mr. Charles Holden.

Spare Time Fish, Woodwork

Feeding his fish, Mr. Jim Porter tends to one of the many chores involved in a tropical fish hobby.

Teachers from the various extra-curricular fields offer special education courses to students. Distributive, special and vocational education and journalism are taught to Lee-ites who are interested in the electives offered here. New publications and drafting rooms are the major additions to the schools in these fields.

Stereo, Songs, Cinema Compose Teachers Time

Mr. Reid Sellers plays the introduction as his students prepare to sing on the down beat.

The Fine Arts Department can boast "more in 64" with new room facilities for drama, choir, band and art classes.

The band and choir students brag of their Band Hall, newest addition to the Lee campus. Drama enthusiasts have moved into the old band hall with redecorations providing a Little Theatre, rehearsal rooms and dressing rooms.

Instructors in the Fine Arts Department are Mr. Reid Sellers, choir; Mr. Marion Rodman, band; Mr. Doyle Brown, art; Mr. Charlie Walker, drama and Mrs. Mary Hill, speech.

Miss Florence Stavorowski

Mrs. Myra Tidmore

Mrs. Ruth Hicks
Department Head

Under the direction of Mrs. Ruth Hicks, the Commercial Arts Department has more than doubled, with the addition of five new teachers.

The Department is using standards set by Mrs. Hicks while she was the head of a state education committee. Five hundred students are now enrolled in the typing courses offered to Lee-ites.

The teachers sponsor the Future Business Leaders of America, which in the past has won many honors.

Setting up a telescope he made, Mr. John Porter checks the inside mechanism before using it for a class experiment.

Bunsen burners, ergs, carbon rings, liver flukes, amoeba...all these strange creatures live in the world of the Science Department.

Miss Ruth Tatum, chairman of the Department, directs a teaching program of biology, chemistry and physics for Lee-ites. Striving to prepare students for tomorrow's world of scientific thought and technology, the Department relys on class participation and experiments to penetrate the mysteries of the scientific world.

Instructing Lee-ites in the homemaking arts, the Department is spearheaded by Miss Wofford, Mrs. Marilyn Drever and Miss La Nelle Uselton.

Class activities range from planning to preparing to presenting student-sponsored events.

Miss Barbara Wofford enjoys needle work as a hobby as well as a profession.

Music, Flowers

Busy Librarians

Newness is the word at Lee's library, the newest landmark on the campus. With the beginning of school, Mrs. Alta Bennett, head librarian, directed moving of new furniture, new books and new quarters to open doors for student use.

Another new feature of the library is the night service which allows students two nights a week with library facilities. Mrs. Bennett, Mrs. Nell Crain, secretary, and volunteer PTA'ers staff evening sessions for Lee-ites.

Scanning her record collection, Mrs. Nell Crain selects an album.

Mrs. Alta Bennett examines some of her African violets in her miniature greenhouse.

During a meeting, Mrs. Wayne Bull, Outstanding Bexar County PTA Woman of 1962-63, consults with Principal A. Kenneth Flory.

Parents support the PTA by buying cakes and pies sold at the annual Mexican Supper.

PTA'ers Study Family, Host Supper, Open House

With "We the PTA seek to understand the family story" serving as a nucleus for activities, the Lee Parent-Teacher Association launched a year full of activities for parents, teachers and students.

Following the "Family" theme, monthly meetings showed aspects of the Lee family with an Open House and Mexican Supper. Dr. Virgil Blossom, superintendent of the North East School District, pointed to the family and school; and PTA'ers studied the family in society by investigating the problem of school dropouts and juvenile delinquency.

PTA activities were led by President Mrs. Ed Fox.

Mrs. Nell Bueker discusses modern algebra with a fellow teacher, Mr. John Verstegen, at the Open House.

Highlighting the year, the Mexican Supper brought parents to enjoy the food. An open house followed for parents to meet Lee teachers.

Counselors Enjoy Books, Excel in Woodwork Arts

Mr. Francis Burgess sands down an old putty holder which he plans to make into a small window box.

Absorbed in the reading of a cover flap, Mrs. Frances Peveto ponders the possibility of checking the book out.

Sorting plates for another day's service are Mrs. Virginia Wolfshohl, Mrs. Dolly Terrel and Mrs. Norris Sonnier.

One of the many duties of Mrs. Edwina Swindler, cafeteria supervisor, is counting the day's proceeds.

Between lunch periods Mrs. Louise Evans and Mrs. Gertrude Johns refill the silver trays.

A sunny day will find the seven-man janitorial staff caring for the grounds. Maintenance workers include (L-R) Pablo Dela Rosa, Lues Orosco, Joe Guerrero, maintenance supervisor, Raul Maldonado, Miguel Orosco, Alfred Martinez and Daniel Zapata.

Personalities

Popularity and achievement--those spirited parts of personality--seem to be ever-present states in high school circles. One of the highest tributes to a student is recognition of his achievement or popularity, whether it be from teachers or students. The TRAVELER Staff presents Lee's personalities for 1963-64, the superlatives contributing to a spirited school year.

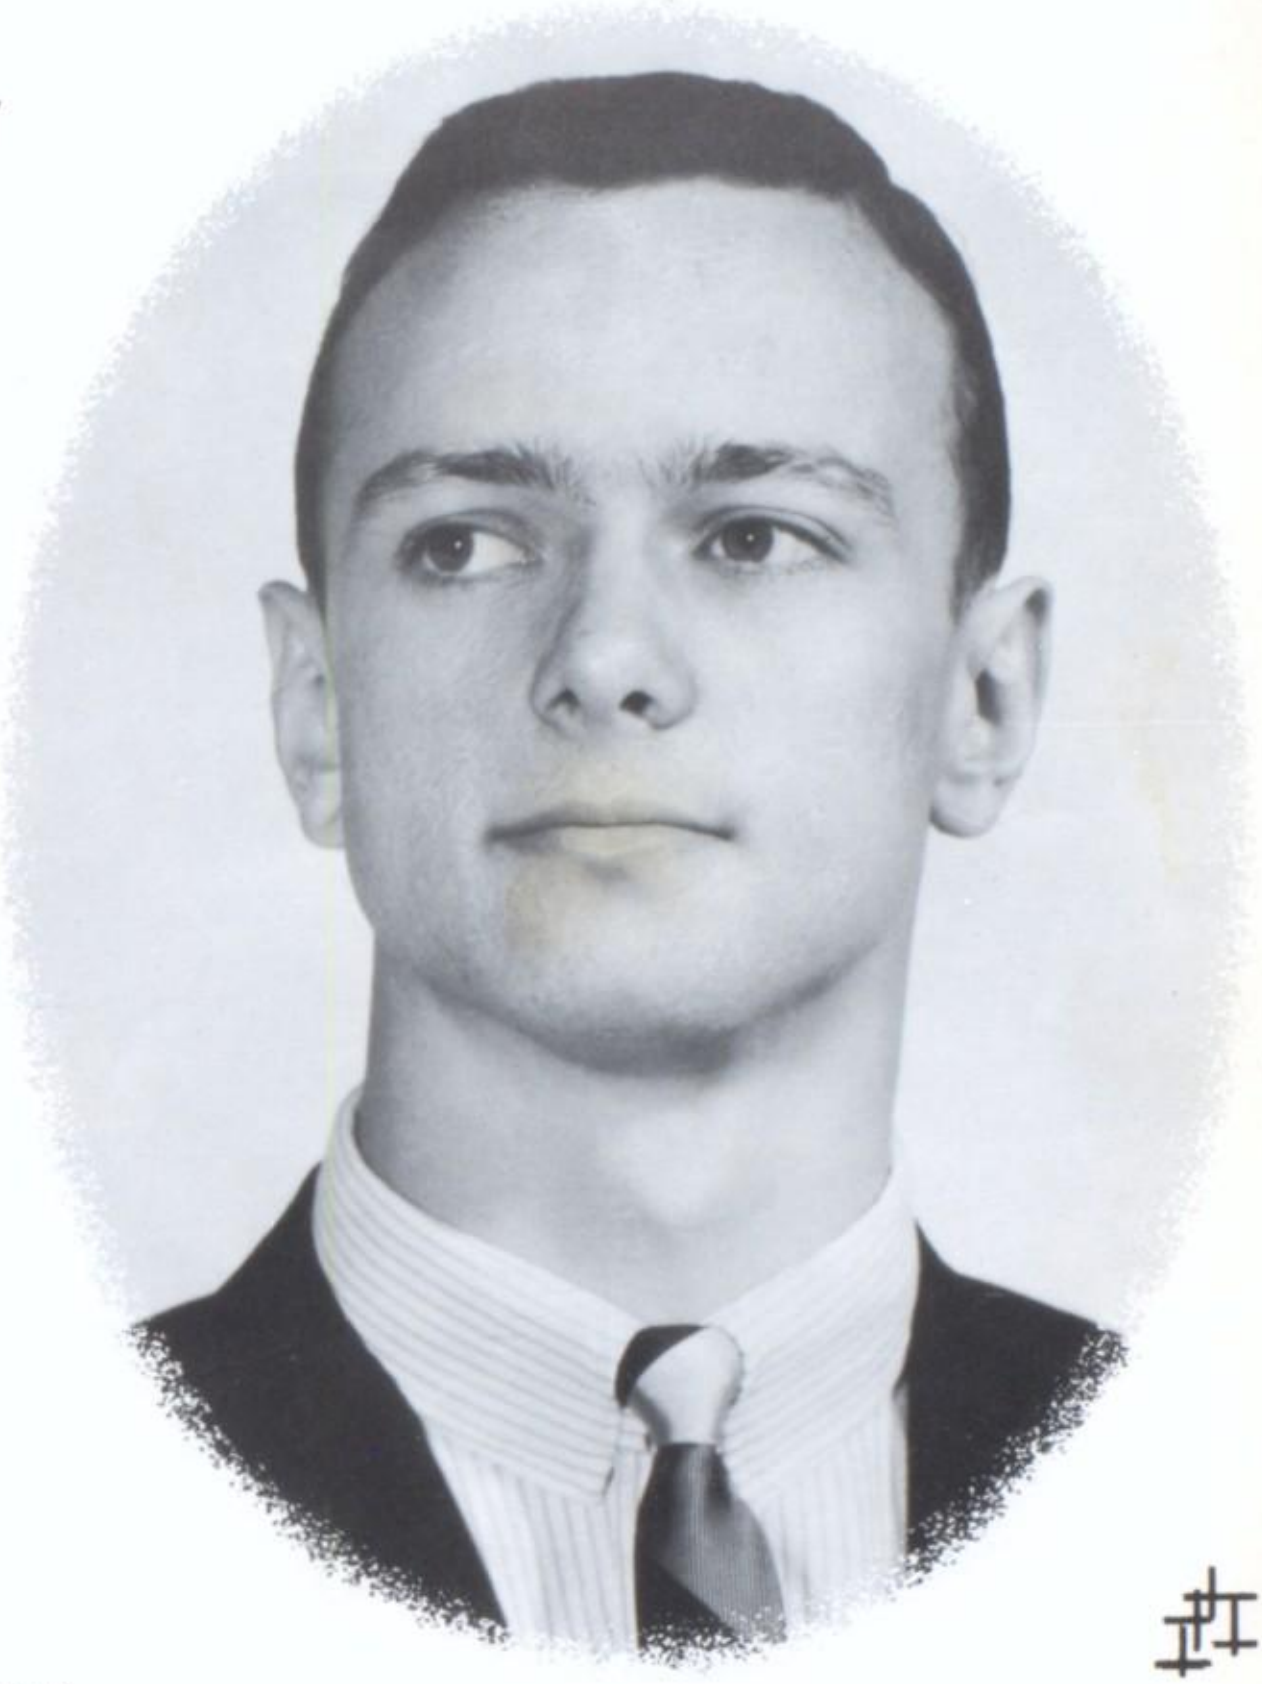
Personalities Editor:
Cammy Harper

Wenche Hanson

Graceful . . . charming . . . dignified . . . poised . . . diplomatic . . . tactful . . . gracious . . .

This is Lee's Wenche Hansen, foreign exchange student, coming to the United States from Norway. Living the life of an American teen with spark and inspiration, Wenche is a member of the Lee-Ettes, FHA and the Student Council. Her Scandinavian smile and friendly personality have earned for her a permanent spot in Lee's history. Feminine . . . humanitarian . . . poised . . . this is Wenche Hansen.

Joe Winkelmann



Versatile . . . dedicated . . . adventurous . . . humorous . . . talented . . . ingenious . . . accurate. . .

This is Lee's Joe Winkelmann, editor of the BUGLE CALL and an outstanding journalism student. His nose for news has led him to participate in the Key Club, Beta Club, Quill & Scroll and Band. Students from Lee as well as from schools throughout San Antonio voted Joe to serve as President of the Alamo Press Club. Scampering through the hall of Lee or seated at his typewriter in the press room, he is professional. . . clever . . . emphatic. . . This is Joe Winkelmann.

Sports

Sports this year have been "spectacular." Through team, coach and twelfth man effort, Robert E. Lee has won the respect of the city and state in all phases of sports activity.

Any athletic participant has the right to have a feeling of pride and satisfaction. His sacrifices were worth the outcome-- a job well done. There are no losers at Lee, for every teamster is a victor.

Baer Sparks Rebels To Paschal Victory

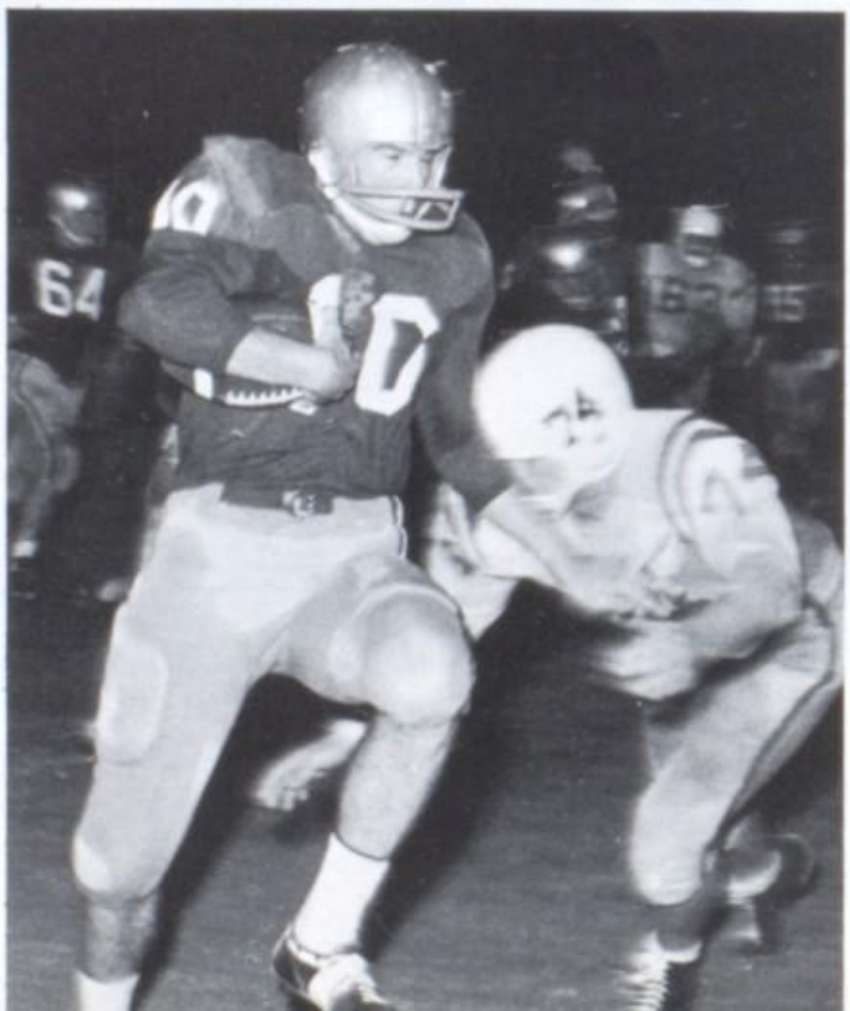
Linus Baer outruns the Panther secondary for 56 yards and the first Lee TD, then races 52 yards for another six points.

Fort Worth Paschal received a halting jolt when Lee's eleven rolled to a 13-7 victory. Four year letterman Linus Baer sparked the team to their first win when he was cleared off right tackle by Bob Bohrer and Eddie Markette, and sprinted 56 yards for a Lee touchdown. Baer added the PAT to make the score 7-0 at the half.

Striking again early in the fourth period, Baer scampered for 52 yards and another six points. The PAT kick was deflected to make the score 13-0.

The Panthers only score came late in the fourth quarter on a fluke. Quarterback Randy Conway was chased by a crashing Lee line to the goal and in desperation threw 40 yards down the sideline to a halfback who shook off Volunteer defenders to find the goal.

Defense was the order of the night as Eddie Markette, Gary Eldridge and Gary Kemph stood out against the Fort Worth offense.



Matadors Fall In 29-6 Bout

In their first home game, Lee unveiled a seemingly impenetrable defense that held the Seguin Matadors to four yards rushing the first half. Combined with an offense that seemed to strike at will, the Vols spelled trouble with a 29-6 final score.

Lee's all-state halfback candidate Linus Baer set the game's pace by roaring 55 yards for six points. He then powered over from the four yard line. The triple-threater booted both PAT's to make the score 14-0.

Seguin's lone score came early in the third quarter on a 24 yard pass. Eight plays later, Baer crashed the Matador line from the two and added the conversion for another seven points. Quarterback Gary Kemph pushed over from the four with 20 seconds left, then passed to Peppy Culpepper, wingback, to end the scoring.

Gary Eldridge aided by Gary Krause, Travis Sebera and Eddie Markette bolstered a rock wall defense for the Volunteers.

Gridders Halt Alice With 40-0 Shutout

A fierce rebel charge left the Alice Coyotes vanquished 40-0 as most of the Lee backfield took turns scoring. A ferocious Linus Baer rolled up 20 points, carrying eleven times for 103 yards.

First to score was Eddie Markette on a 36-yard pass from Gary Kemph. In the second quarter, Baer ran wild for two touchdowns with 12 and 38 yard runs across the goal line; he then kicked the extra points. An eight yard dash by Tom Morgan closed out the first half with another TD to make the score 26-0.

Moving again early in the third quarter, Baer took a Coyote punt and exhibited an exceptional bit of broken field running as he dashed 68 yards for another six points. Then Morgan passed to Bill Knippa and the score jumped to 34-0. Bruce Kemph ended the scoring by scampering 36 yards for the second time, his first run into the end zone having been called back.

Defensive artists Travis Sebera, Gary Eldridge, Gary Krause, Jerry Briggs and Markette held Alice to only 48 yards rushing.

Plowing through the line, Peppy Culpepper picks up five yards.

Eddie Markette makes the first score of the game with the completion of a 36-yard pass from Gary Kemph.

Rebel Slaughter of Carroll Shocks State

Bruce Kemph side steps to avoid one defender as Gary Eldridge stands by for a key block.

The Volunteers shocked state football predictors by taming the Carroll Tigers, 65-6, in the second meeting of the two AAAA powers. The Rebel ground attempt kept complete control of the ball scoring almost at will.

Adding 23 points to his already booming total, Linus Baer scored three times and converted five kicks for PAT. Fullback Tom Wirth added the conversion on Baer's third TD with a hard charge up the middle.

Quarterback Gary Kemph crashed from the one for six points and scored again after a 23 yard run by Baer. Fullback Larry Townsend added six points on a two yard leap.

Sophomore Wingback Pat Sheehan slipped through the line to pick up another six points after a 40 yard Baer punt return. Tom Morgan passed to End Jim LaGrone for the conversion.

With four seconds remaining, Quarterback D. R. Nelson passed to LaGrone for the final T.D., and Morgan entered the game to run the ball for another two points.

The Vols exhibited a superb defense that held one of the state's best backs, Melba Cross, to 90 yards rushing.

Breaking loose for one of his two touchdowns, Larry Townsend out maneuvers Carroll tacklers.

Vols Wave Bye-Bye to Mustangs In 15-AAAA District Opener

Led by Linus Baer on offense and Travis Sebera on defense, the Volunteers brought about the complete demise of the "mighty" Jefferson Mustangs by shuting them out 23-0.

Tailback Linus Baer was the first Vol to strike for points as he skipped around right end, faked Jefferson Halfback James Jefferson to his knees and sprinted for the goal line. Safetyman Pat Shannon was overpowered as Baer charged over him for six points. Baer's PAT split the uprights to make the score 7-0.

With the start of the second quarter, Tailback Baer slipped through the middle of the line at the Lee 26 and set sail downfield for 74 yards to score. Quarterback Gary Kemph added salt to the gaping wound left by Baer by crashing over for two points. Lee's brute defense held Jeff completely to anchor the halftime score, 15-0.

Late in the fourth quarter, Peppy Culpepper scored on a three yard pass from Kemph and Bill Knippa took another Kemph aerial for the conversion to make the final score 23-0.

Middle linebacker Travis Sebera led the defensive unit with 17 tackles. Sebera, teamed with Eddie Markette, Gary Eldridge, Jerry Briggs, Gary Krause, Bob Burney and Bill Knippa held the Mustangs' offense to 95 yards rushing, while Baer rolled for more ground in the first half alone.

The secondary was controlled by Johnny Rabon and Peppy Culpepper who worked together to ably defend the Jeff passing attack.

Lee Defeats Mules, 25-0

Linus Baer rushes 50 yards for a Vol TD.

V

Racing for gains of 16 and 14 yards, Linus Baer sets up his 50 yard TD run.

Alamo Heights was sunk 25-0 in rain-drenched North East Stadium as the Volunteers splashed to their sixth straight victory. The adverse weather conditions caused a 5,000 person crowd to shrink to 500 by halftime and hindered the fast moving Lee offense with slippery footing.

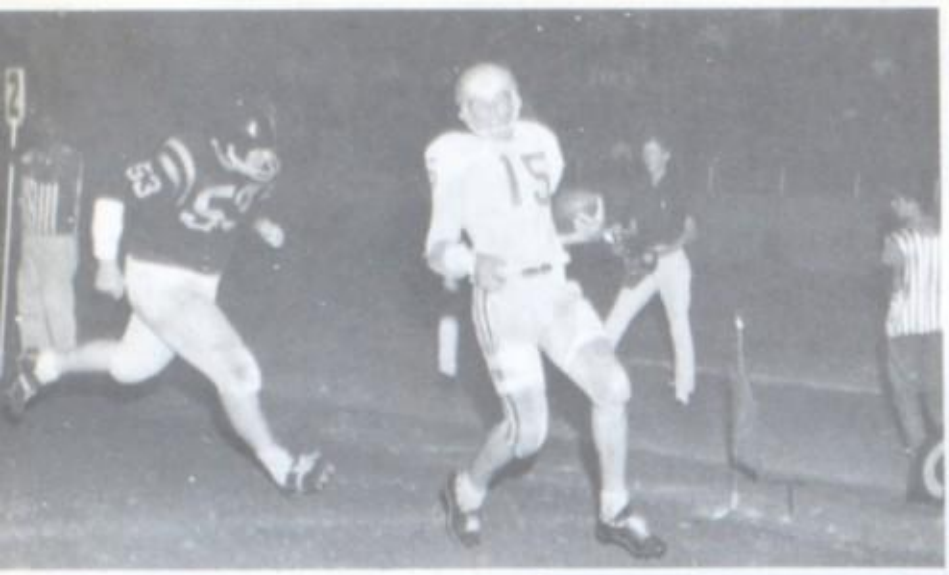
Junior Fullback Tom Wirth struck first on a dazzling 15 yard break up the middle and Linus Baer converted to give the Reb's a 7-0 lead. The next marker came on an 86 yard drive with Baer accounting for 84 yards with runs of 18, 16 and a final TD scamper of 50 yards.

Senior end Eddie Markette was on the receiving end of two touchdown passes thrown in a driving rain by Quarterback Gary Kemph. The first toss went for 29 yards while the second accounted for 17 yards.

The powerful Rebel defensive line retained their footing and reigned supreme over the Mule linemen to hold the Heights' backs in check.

Tommy Wirth squeezes out of an opponent's hold and dashes 15 yards for a TD.

Vols Post Outscore



Gary Kemph and Linus Baer strike for near identical TD's.

Lee's spirited Volunteers combined brute running power and a rugged defense to outscore the Edison Bears 49-31 for the team's second district victory and a fifth straight win in season competition.

The scoring drive began when Quarterback Gary Kemph crashed over the Bear's line from the seven. Linus Baer then faked out a defender to chalk up two extra points and post an 8-0 score. On the next series of plays, Tackle Scott McGehee recovered an Edison punt blocked by End Bill Knippa to set up the next tally. Five plays later, Kemph pushed over from the three. From then on, the game belonged to Baer as he scored five touchdowns, and rushed 270 yards on 21 carries.

Baer, spectacular running ace, ran for two TD's covering 13 yards and sprinted 62 and 70 yards for scores. He marked his fifth TD on a 19 yard pass from Kemph, and made three conversion points to bring his total scoring for the night to 33 points.

As a result of a tough offensive squad, the Volunteers became the tenth ranked team in AAAA high school football.

Travis Sebera, Eddie Markette and Linus Baer move in on Edison's quarterback.

Lee Eleven Set Sights

Lee's Volunteers showed their championship form and erased any doubts in the minds of the capacity crowd at North East Stadium as they wiped out the Owls 34-0.

Fabulous Linus Baer struck for 20 points to put the Owls in the hole while the capable Rebel defense reigned supreme over Highlands' highly touted offense to keep the game under control.

Pat Bowman grabbed an Owl fumble on the kickoff to set up the first Lee tally, and 11 plays later Baer rammed over from the three yard line. Linus' kick for PAT was good, and the Vols were off and running. Midway through the second quarter, Baer hit up the middle, spun away from one tackler and scampered 42 yards for the second marker. With his usual accuracy Baer converted to set the score at 14-0.

Early in the fourth quarter Baer rolled out to his right but when his receivers were covered, he cut upfield on the most spectacular play of the night. Baer skipped up the sidelines and with great balance escaped seven tacklers, each bent on stopping the elusive number 10. Midway through the 4th quarter, Bruce Kemph, sophomore brother of Quarterback Gary Kemph, turned it on down the sidelines and went 53 yards for the fourth marker. With two seconds of game time remaining, Quarterback Tom Morgan and wingback "Peppy" Culpepper entered the game and connected on a three yard touchdown pass to raise the final score to 34-0.

The superior Lee defense led by Gary Krause, Gary Eldridge, Jerry Briggs, Travis Sebera, and Johnny Rabon allowed the Highlands team across the mid-field stripe only twice. The "red-dogging" of linebackers Bob Burney, Larry Townsend, and Sebera kept the Owl's pass conscious quarterback from getting set to throw and dropped him for losses totaling 23 yards.

Vols Smash Harlandale, Capture 15-AAAA Crown

Robert E. Lee's Volunteers wrapped up the 15-AAAA crown by downing the Harlandale Indians, 20-0, in the Rebel's fifth district game and ninth straight win of the season. The Vols proved they are not a one-man operation by calling on Quarterback Gary Kemph and Fullback Larry Townsend to shoulder most of the rushing duties.

Linus Baer, Lee's invincible number 10, rambled over from five yards out to score the first Lee TD. The Vol line made the next mark look almost easy with runaway blocking that cleared the way for Baer to scat 90 yards to paydirt. Kemph ran for the extra points that brought the tally to 14-0 at the half.

On the first play of the fourth period, Townsend bulled over from one yard out to set the final score at 20-0.

Lee's torrid defenders, sporting an invincible line, held the Harlandale tribe to 76 yards rushing and gave up only seven first downs.

Bill Knippa leaps up and knocks down an Indian aerial.

Mac Falls to Rousing Rebel Line

Mike Douglas attempts to stop the completion of a Brahma pass.

Letting loose with a great burst of sheer power, Bruce Kemph storms over the line for six points.

Wrapping up the first perfect season in Lee football history, the Volunteer eleven trampled their arch-rivals, the MacArthur Brahmas, 50-12, before a near capacity crowd at North East Stadium.

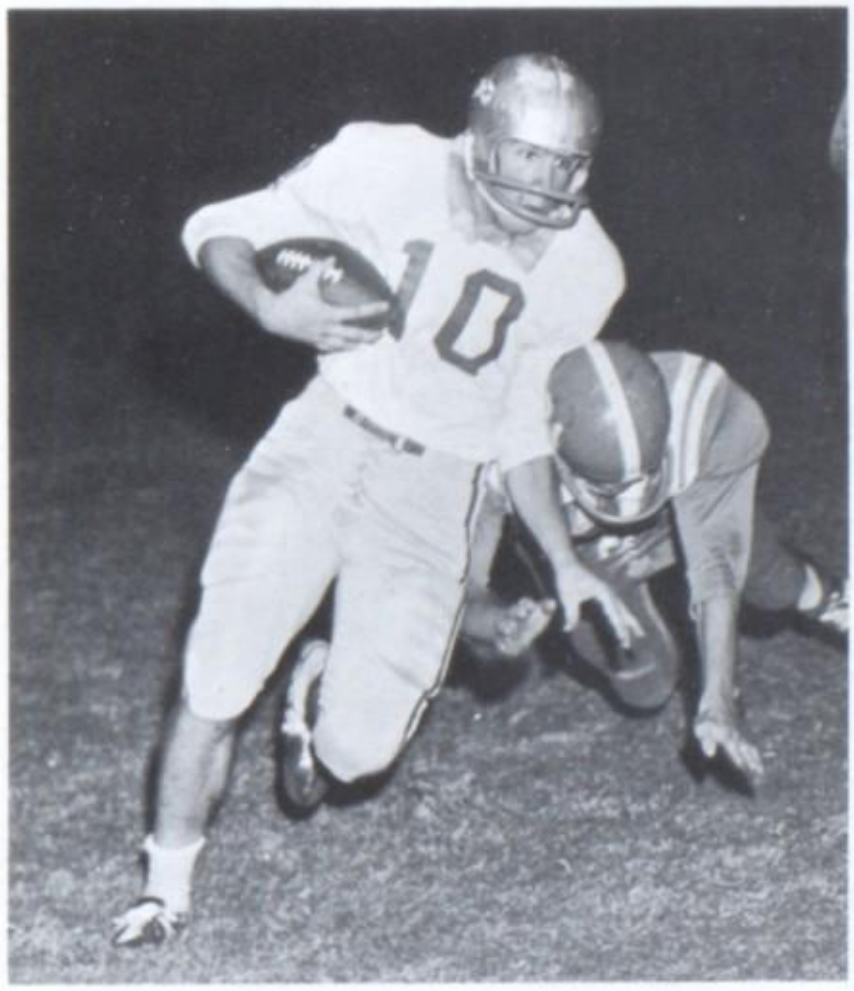
The Rebel scoring drives began when Tailback Linus Baer took a hand-off from Wingback Gary Kemph early in the second quarter to return a Brahma punt 58 yards for a TD. On Lee's next ball possession, Kemph broke around left end, cut back up the middle and went 37 yards to score.

After recovering an on-side kick, the Volunteers marched 49 yards with a Baer to Bruce Kemph pass being the pay-off. Quarterback Kemph passed to Wingback Johnny Rabon for the two-pointer to wind up the first half scoring at 20-0.

With the start of the second half, junior Tom Morgan cranked off an 86 yard kick-off return, then passed to Eddie Markette for the PAT. Gary Kemph continued to rack up points as he picked off a Brahma aerial and returned it 30 yards to score.

Morgan then fired two bombs to add the next Lee scores. The first six point pass went to Bruce Kemph for a total of 42 yards, and the second was hauled in by Gary Whitney on a 33 yard play. A Vol pass to Wingback Peppy Culpepper and a run by Baer accounted for the extra points.

The Vols displayed a brick-wall aerial defense and a tough line to keep the Brahma scoring marches to only two.



Sly like a fox, Linus Baer prances away from opposing Brahma for a TD.

Lee Survives Brack, 55-48; Moves Into State Play-Offs

Brackenridge, defending State AAAA champion, was outlasted, 55-48 by the Volunteers in a locally televised game that witnessed the most spectacular duel of the century between Lee's Linus Baer and Brack's Warren McVea.

Every faction of the Vol offense clicked while the Eagles rested solely on the running of "Wonderous Warren." Baer enjoyed the greatest night of his football career at Lee as he scored 37 points, rushed for 150 yards, added 94 yards on three pass receptions, and made the longest touchdown run of the night as he eluded the entire Brack defense on a 95 yard kick-off return.

Bill Knippa recovered a Baer fumble in the end-zone to provide the first Lee TD after an on-side kick-off recovery. Gary Kemph rolled 12 yards to score and with Baer's PAT kick, the scoreboard registered 27-12. Baer finished out the first half scoring as he took a 46 yard pass from Kemph and bowled over the Brack defenders for the score.

Brack scored with the start of the second half but Baer retaliated with a 47 yard scamper. The sell-out crowd at Alamo Stadium saw the strong Vol runner charge over a lone Eagle safety man to add six more points to the scoreboard.

The trade of touchdowns continued with McVea going over from 20 yards out. The Eagles then made a mistake they regretted for the rest of the night--they kicked off deep to Baer who received the ball at the five and raced up the middle alternately sidestepping and charging over potential tacklers. A tremendous cutback allowed Center Miguel Najar to throw a key block, brushing McVea aside, and there wasn't another Brack defender capable of over-hauling the swift Lee tailback.

Another pair of Brack TD's, one on a Lee fumble, ran the score to a 48-48 deadlock. The Vols took over on their own 47 yard line and drove for the goal with Eddie Markette and Baer making crucial first downs. Junior Fullback Larry Townsend rammed the Eagle line behind Guard Mark Schreiber and Tackle Gary Eldridge for two yards and the winning six points. Baer's PAT was good and the score was set at 55-48 with 18 seconds remaining. McVea was given two chances to score but was collared by alert Lee linemen before he could make it to the sidelines.

Middle linebacker Travis Sebera racked up eight unassisted tackles to lead the Vol defensive unit against Wonderous Warren McVea and his Brackenridge Eagles.

Eddie Markette takes a pass for a first down to keep the winning drive moving.

All-State tailback Linus Baer crashes over for a TD.

Junior End Bill Knippa recovers a fumble in the endzone for the first Lee touchdown.

Baer heads goalward leaving Brack's Douglas Coffee behind.

Lee's sensational number 10, Linus Baer, overpowers the Miller line for a six-point talley.

Little Inez Perez passed the Miller Buccaneers to a 21-19 state quarterfinal victory despite the all-out efforts of the Volunteer squad. The Vols jammed the vaunted Buc ground game, broke All-American tailback Linus Baer loose for three touchdowns, and held an edge in penetrations.

Baer's first score came on a four yard plunge. In the third quarter Baer impressed 18,000 spectators by crashing 31 yards for a Vol TD. The Miller Bucs challenged the Vol powerhouse, but each time the would-be tacklers were knocked aside by the hard-driving All-Stater. When Baer crossed the goal line he left six frustrated football players from Corpus marking his path.

Quarterback Gary Kemph set up the last Lee TD by racing 45 yards to the Miller one yard line before being knocked out of bounds. Baer carried over from the one to tally Lee's last point. The pass for two extra points was incomplete from Gary Kemph to his brother, Bruce.

Vols Go Unbeaten in Pre-season Games

On the same weekend that the defending Class AAAA football champions, Brackenridge, fell to the Vol griders, the Lee cagers launched their promising 1964 basketball season by bouncing the defending Class AAAA basketball champs, San Angelo, 46-43, and 60-51, on consecutive nights. Junior Johnny Coles and Senior Larry Miller led the Vols with 17 and 18 points, respectively, for the Vols' two nights.

Next stop for the triumphant Vols was on the hardwood at Marshall High School. The sparked Rebels soundly slammed the Rams by a one-sided talley of 60-32.

The Vols then turned homeward for their first home appearance of the 1964 season. On this outing, it was the Corpus Christi Texans from Ray High School that fell under the onslaught of the high-flying Volunteers, 81-55. Senior guard Larry Miller once again tallied high for the night with 38 points.

In the final non-district contest, the Rebels once again donned the red jerseys of the home hardwood and emerged victorious over Marshall, 51-38, for an unblemished record of pre-season games.

Vols Cop North East Tourney In Pre-District Competition

VICTORIA TOURNAMENT

After the three consecutive pre-season victories, the Volunteers suffered their first defeats of the year in the Victoria Tournament which they won last year. In the first round of play, the Vols were knocked off by Houston Bellaire by a score of 66-44. After their first defeat of the season, the Rebs bounced back for a victory over Austin McCollum, 57-54. In the final round of a consolation play, the Vols were finally eliminated by a close 52-50 score with Austin Travis. This tournament handed the Vols their first two defeats of the year and left them with a 4-2 record.

NORTH EAST TOURNAMENT

The Volunteer five, bolstered by the support of Senior Guard Linus Baer, displayed a totally new brand of basketball in copping the North East Tournament here at Lee. The Rebs opened tournament play by whitewashing the Brackenridge Eagles 64-48, and in the semi-finals, roping the Alamo Heights Mules, 81-60. The Vols clinched the top trophy by pulling out a 74-70 victory over the Spring Branch Memorial Mustangs. All-tournament choices Larry Miller, Danny Sponhaltz and Linus Baer led the tournament scoring throughout as the victorious Volunteers finished on top of their own tournament for the third consecutive year.

SAN ANTONIO INVITATIONAL TOURNAMENT

The Volunteers opened their after Christmas play by downing the Lanier Voks, 47-41, in the first round of the San Antonio Invitational Tournament. Larry Miller led the Vol's scoring with 23 points for the night. In the quarter round of play, the Rebs smashed Wheatley, 66-43, in a game which found the Vols leading all the way. The Volunteers then advanced to the final round by way of a victory over San Angelo. The Rebs were finally knocked off by a fired-up Jefferson team which won on free throws in the overtime, 56-55. The Volunteer five held the lead throughout most of the game, but lost in the last-minute surge by the Mustangs.

Lee Cagers Grab Pair From Heights

Larry Blakley eludes defending Mule in Lee's 64-46 victory.

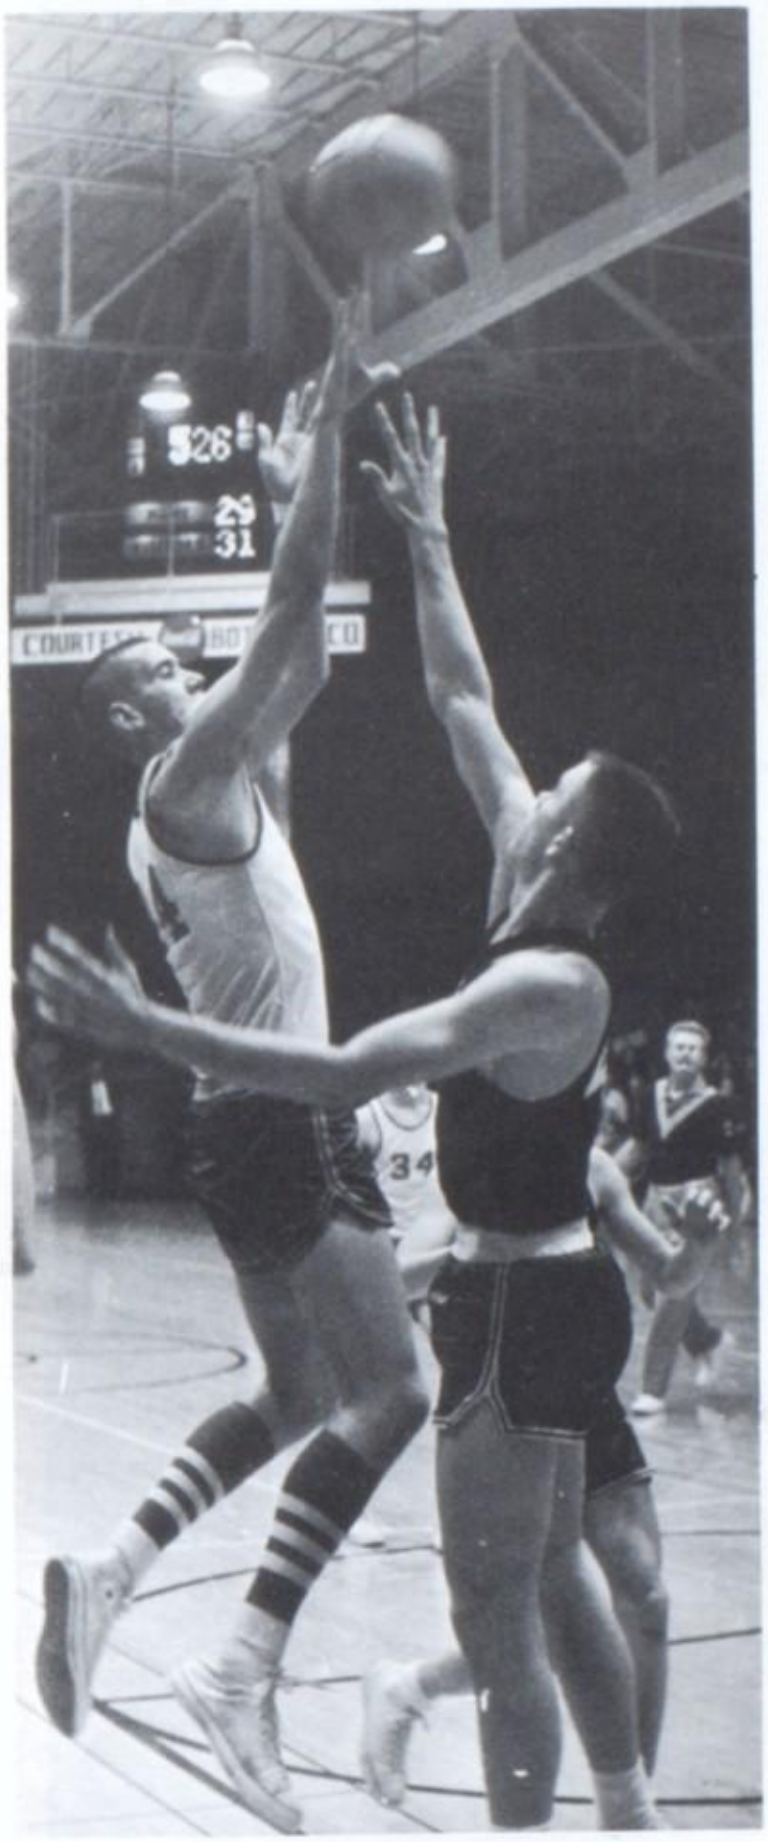
Junior Johnny Coles goes high to bucket a two-pointer for the Vols.

In the district opener for both teams, the Volunteers surged over the Alamo Heights Mules at the Lee gym, 64-46. The Vols edged ahead by a 30-26 score at half-time, but a 24 point fourth quarter put the game on ice for the Volunteers.

Senior Larry Miller, leading the district in scoring, tossed in a record 41 points for the Vols in their second meeting with the Mules. The game ended 83-52, giving the Vols an unblemished district record of seven victories in as many starts.

Owls Fail Vols Test

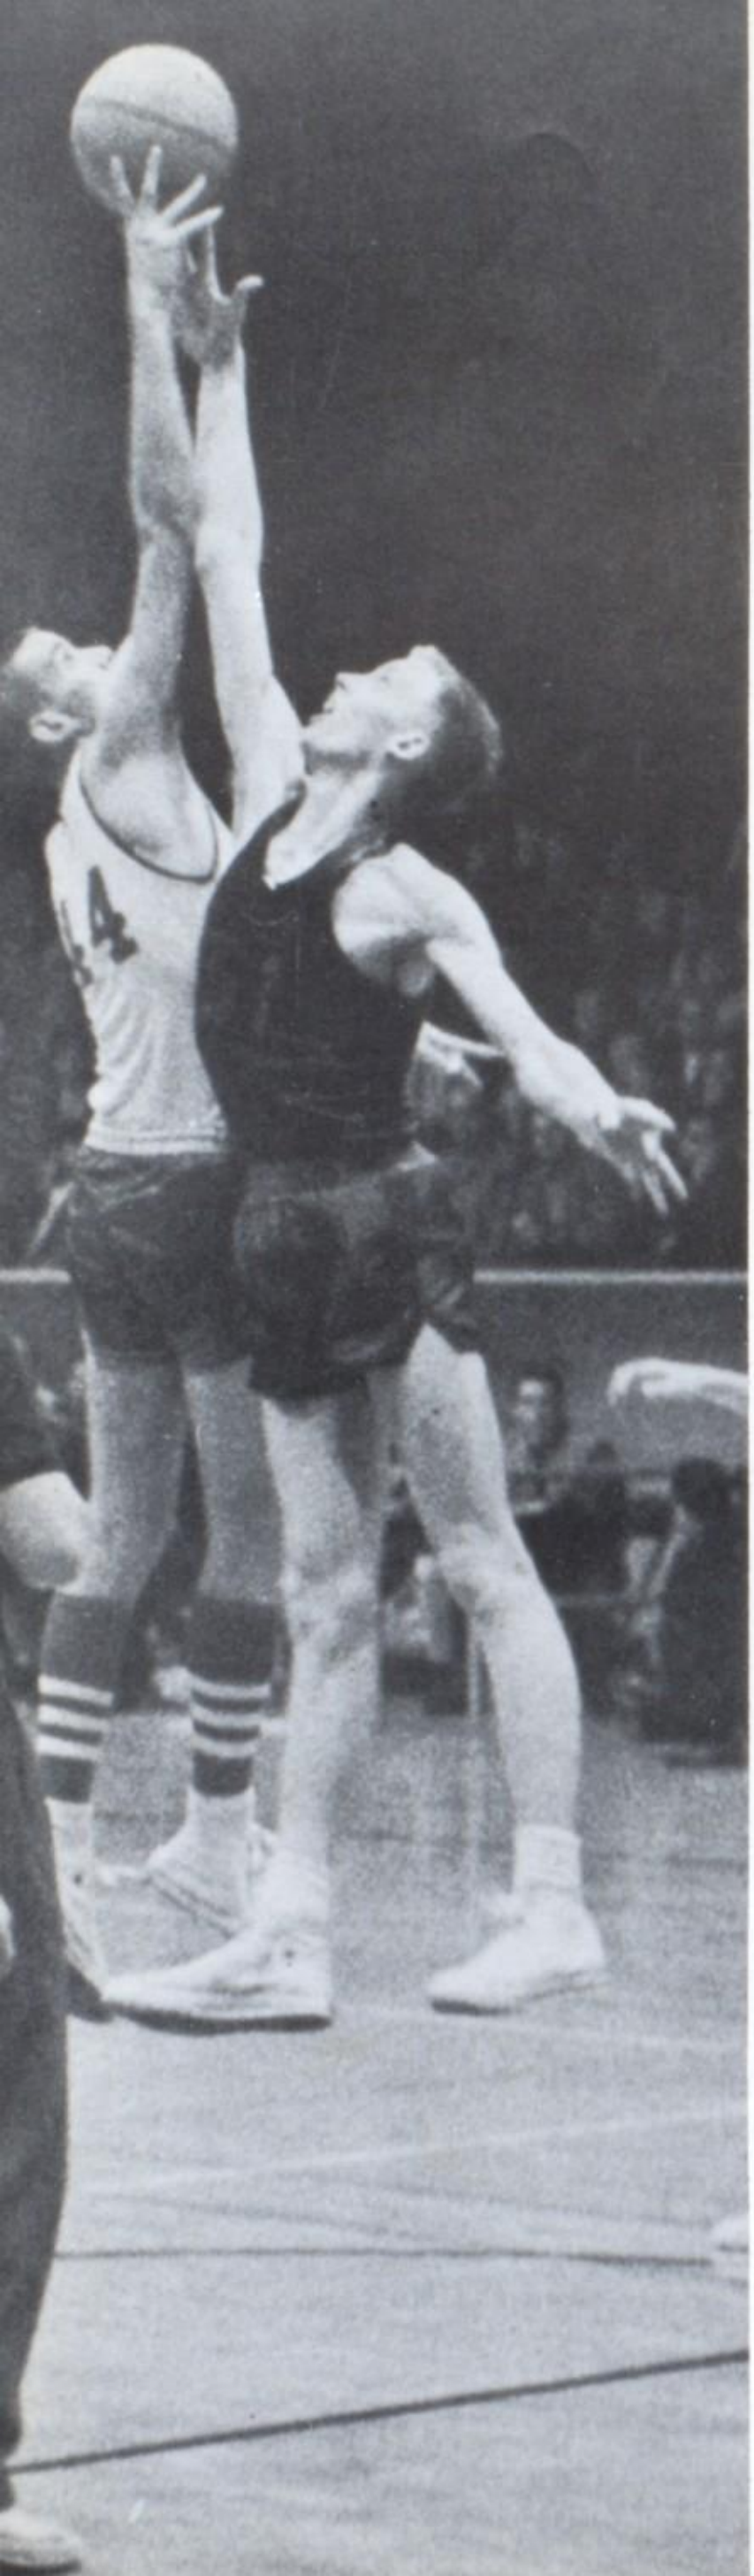
High-pointer Larry Miller displays top-notch shooting form.



Danny Sponhaltz fires a jump shot in Lee's 57-46 victory.

The Highlands Owls flunked out twice when faced with the quick and fast-breaking Volunteers. Though equipped with four starters back from last year's squad, Highlands could not stand up to the Vols' onslaught.

A third quarter comeback told the story in the first encounter. Final score: Rebs 57, Highlands 46. The second meeting saw no need for such a comeback as Lee controlled the game from beginning to end with a 69-41 tally.



Volunteers Split Pair With Ponies

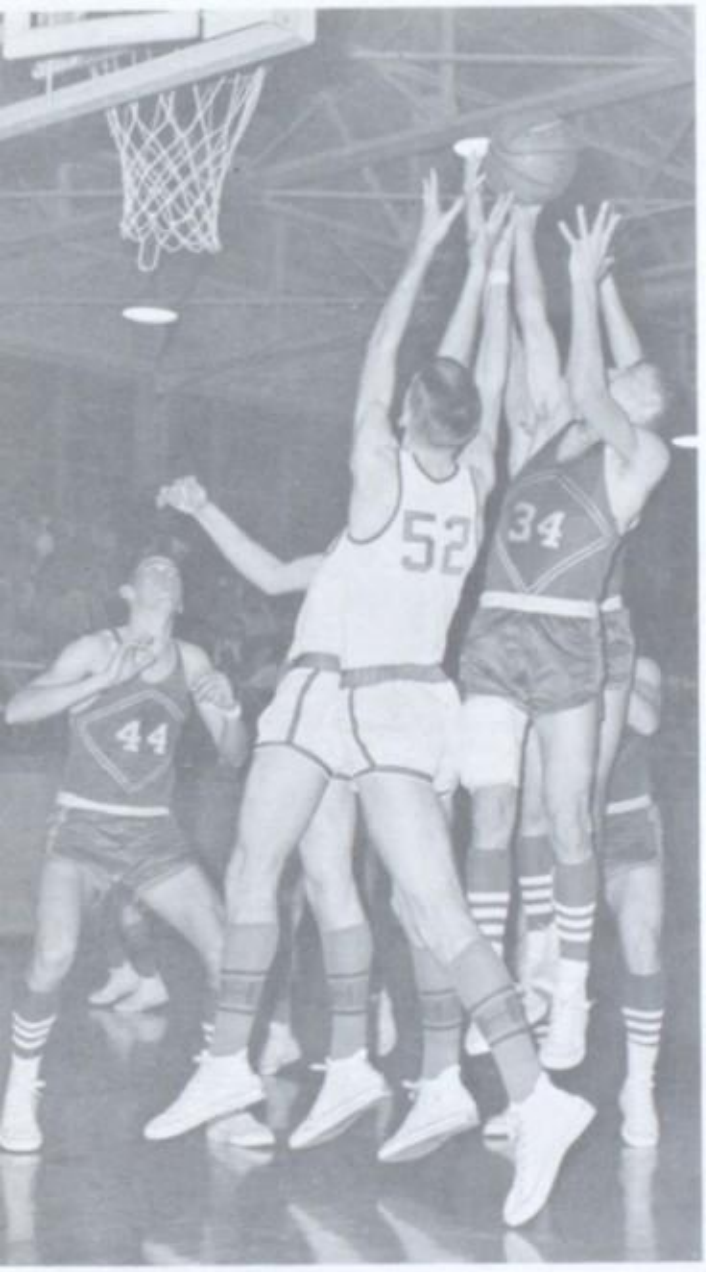
The Volunteers swept over the Jefferson Mustangs, 65-50, at the Lee gym in the first district contest of the two teams. The Mustangs had little taste of the game as the Volunteers, bolstered by the shooting of Baer, Sponhaltz, and Miller, ruled the boards and led the hapless Mustangs by 18 or more points for the majority of the game.

In the second meeting, the Alamo Stadium Gym jinx once again contributed a loss to the Vol record. It was a tight game throughout, but the game ended as the Jefferson basket was filled with last minute tosses to hand the Vols their first district defeat, 54-52.

Senior letterman Danny Sponhaltz, 6'5", out-jumps and out-shoots rival ponies.

Larry Miller passes between two Indians.

Senior Linus Baer steals pass from hapless Indian.



The Vols battle for the rebounds as Larry Blakley controls this one.

Volunteers Drop Tallest Team Twice

Although the key to a winning basketball team is said to lie in the height of the players, the Volunteers proved this wrong as they dumped the Harlandale Indians, one of the tallest teams in the city, on two occasions.

In the two contests, the Volunteers' defensive game was the key to victory. The games ended with two red and gray victories: 53-48 at Harlandale, and 62-50 at the Lee gym.

Rebs Crush Bears' Hopes

Lanky Danny Sponhaltz fires away a jump shot in Lee's 74-48 win.

A fast running game and the shooting of all-state Volunteer ace Larry Miller led the Vols to two victories over the Edison Bears. The first quarters of each of the games were close, but the fast-break game of the Volunteers began to tell the story as the Rebs cashed in on their running game for two victories of 74-48 and 62-50.

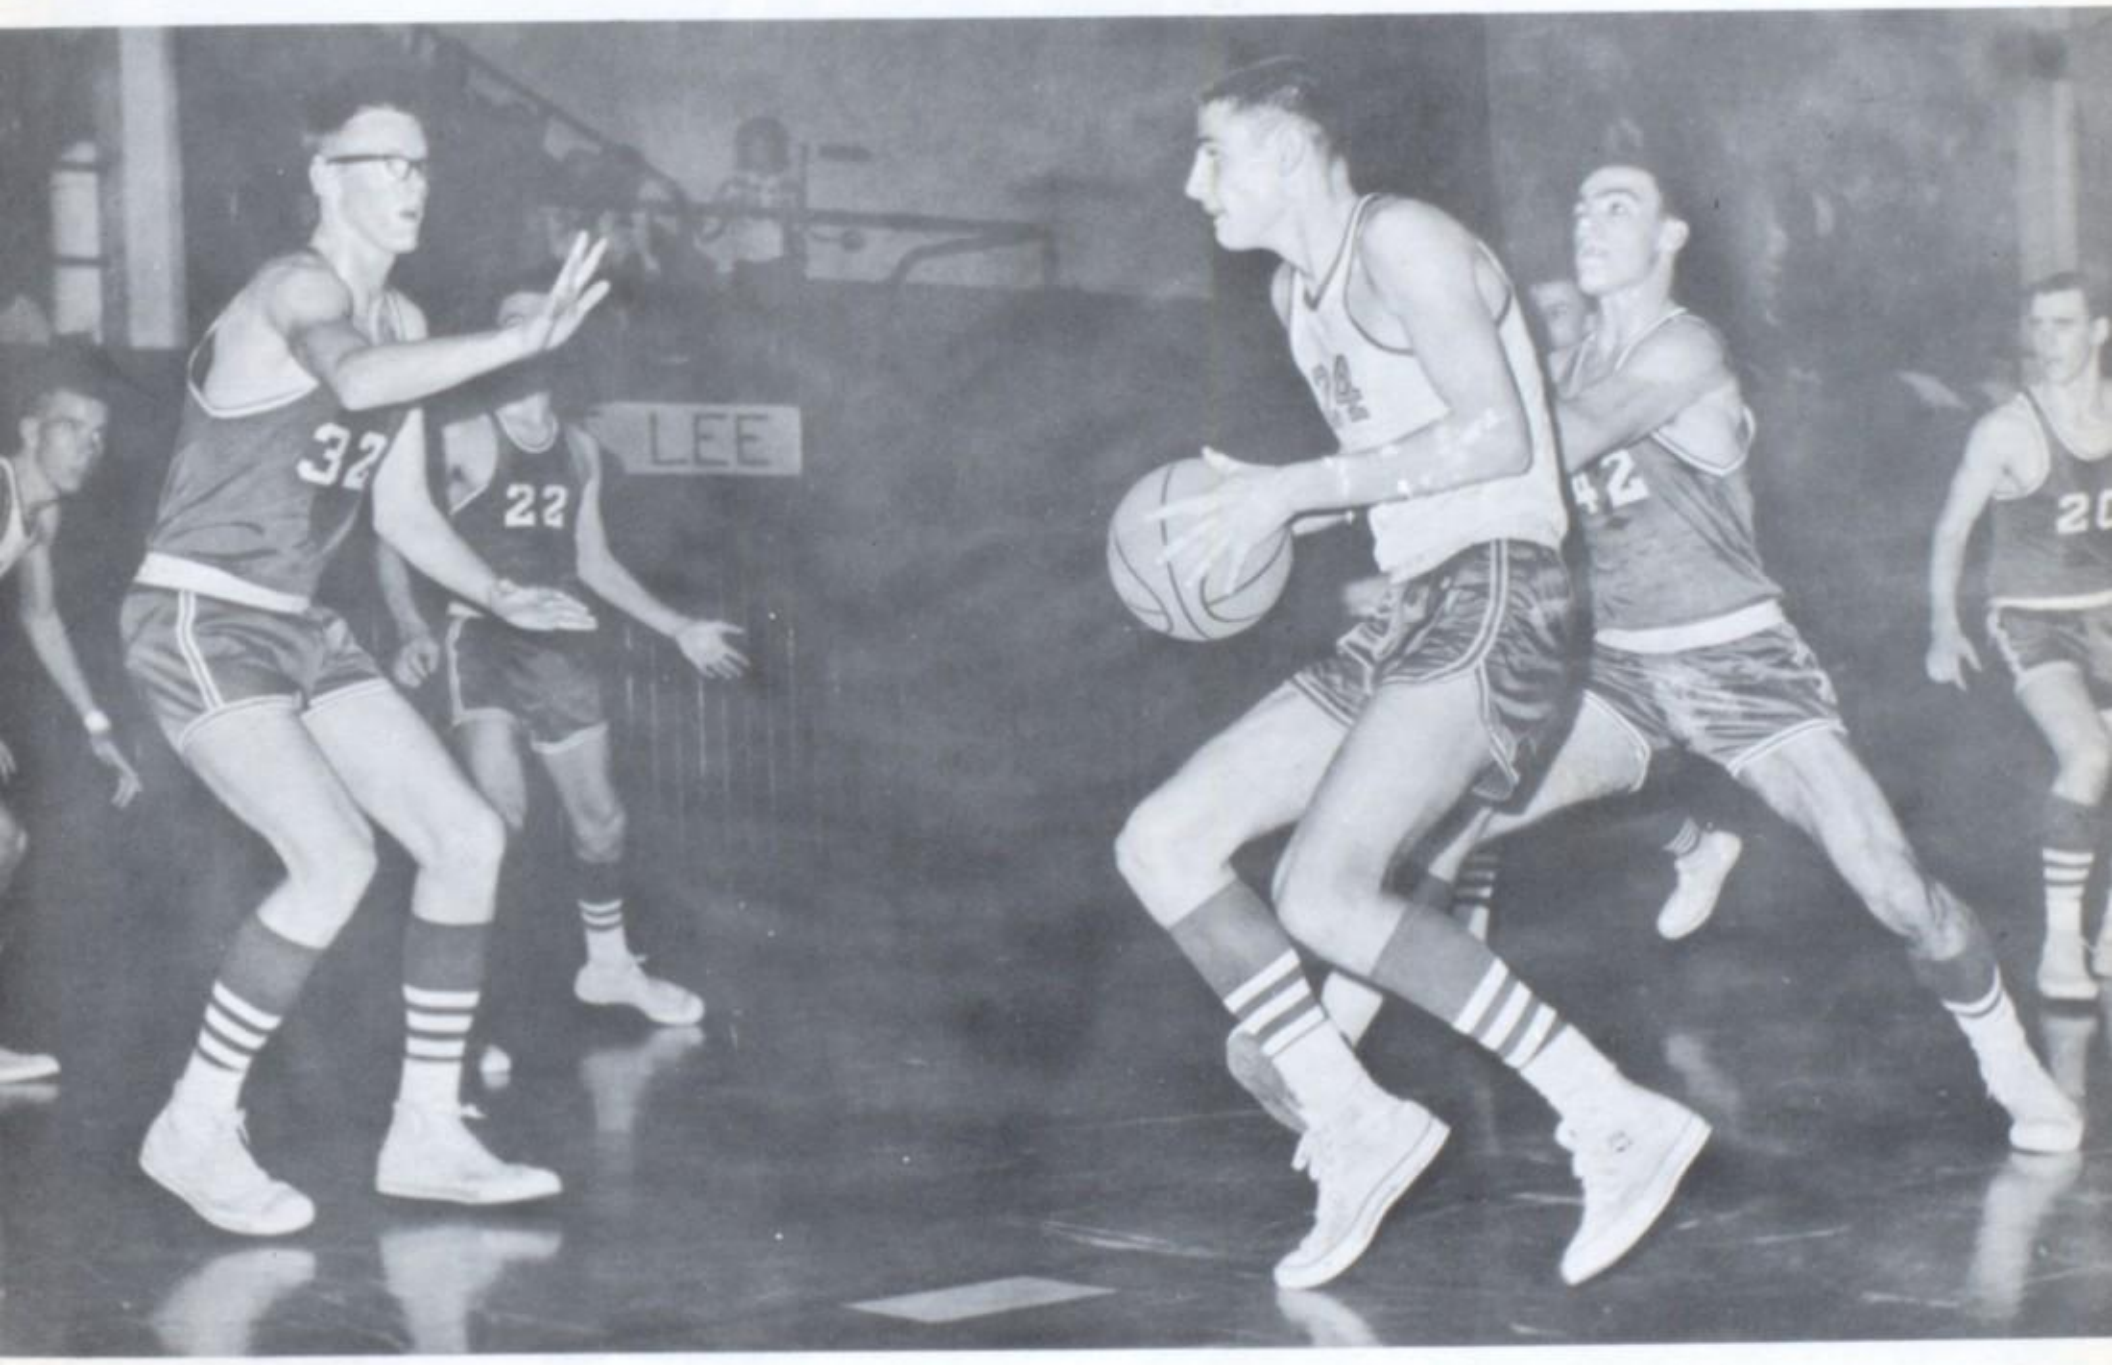
Linus Baer buckets two points for Lee with a driving lay-up.

Vols Trounce Hapless Brahmas

A fast finish and superb accuracy from the free throw line led the Volunteers to an unblemished first round district record. In the first contest, the fired-up Brahmas gave the Volunteers one of their closest games. The buzzer sounded leaving the Volunteers with a 64-61 victory.

In the second game, it was Lee all the way as the Rebs controlled the floor and the boards. They walked away with a 79-49 victory over MacArthur and the undisputed district 15-AAAA championship.

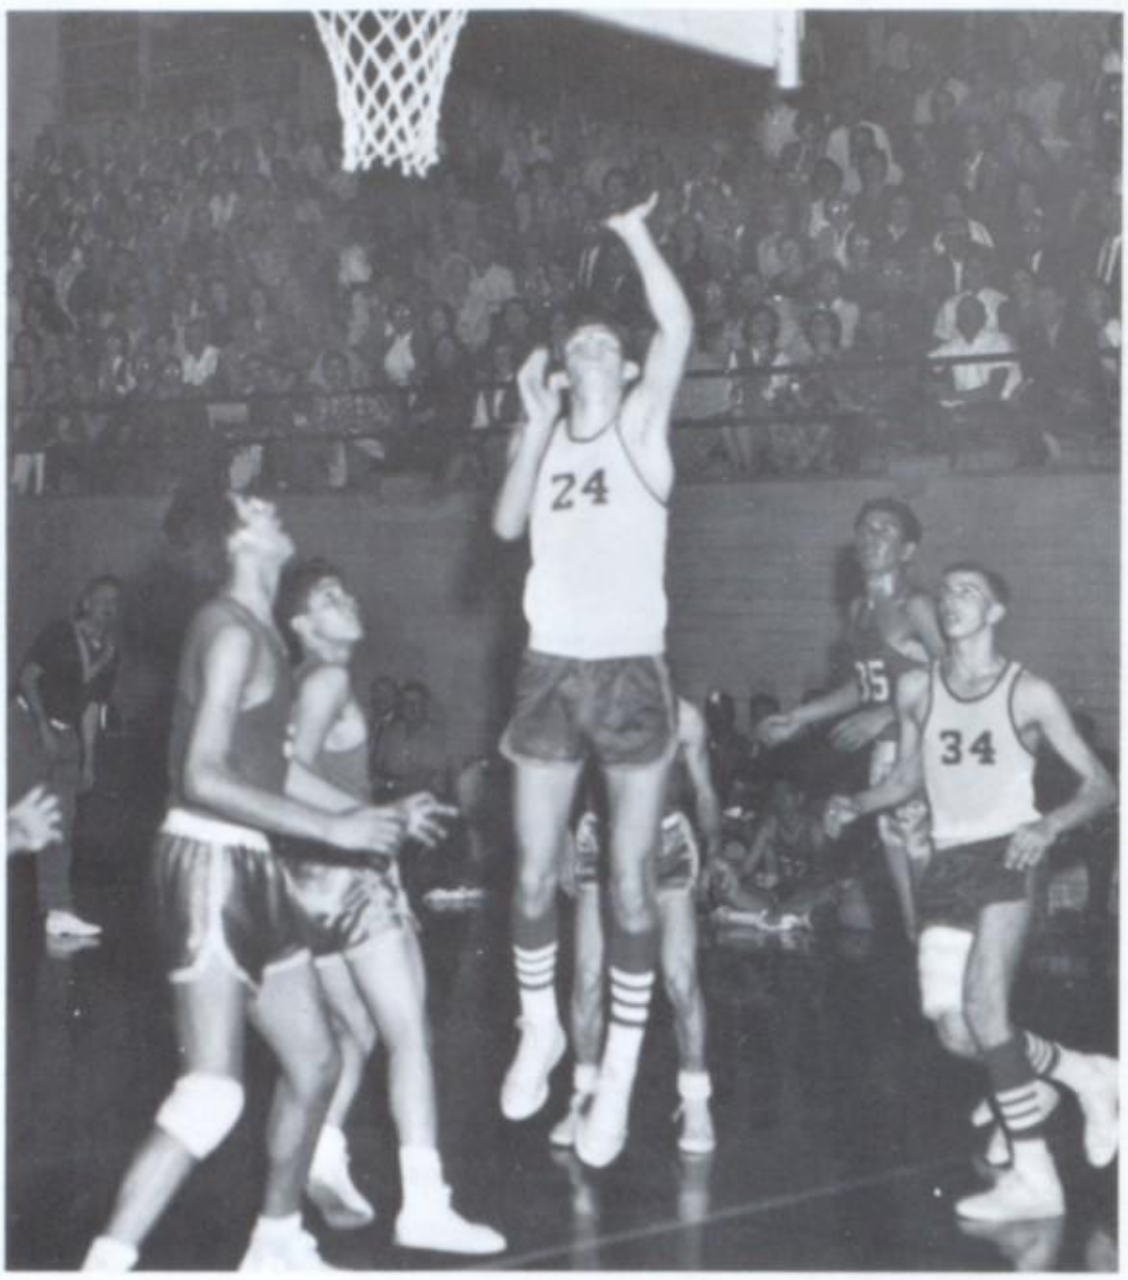
Johnny Coles eludes a Brahma in Lee's 64-61 win at the MacArthur gym.



Vols Rout Lanier in Bi-District Bout

The staggering height of the Volunteers became apparent as they crushed Lanier, 73-49, in the Harlandale gym. In the opening minutes, the Voks of Lanier jumped to a lead of 4-0, but the Vols soon caught up and they were never challenged again. The buzzer sounded at halftime with a Reb score of 35-18.

The second half of the game was all Lee, too, as the reserves took over in the final period to thwart Lanier's desperation surge to get back into the game. Lanier's one strong-point, their defense, was mauled by the snappy passes and quick offense typical of the Volunteer five. Danny Sponhaltz and Larry Miller time and again cleared the boards for the Vol cagers as the final buzzer sounded leaving the Vols with a one-sided 73-49 victory.



Lee's Johnny Coles puts in an easy two points from the inside.

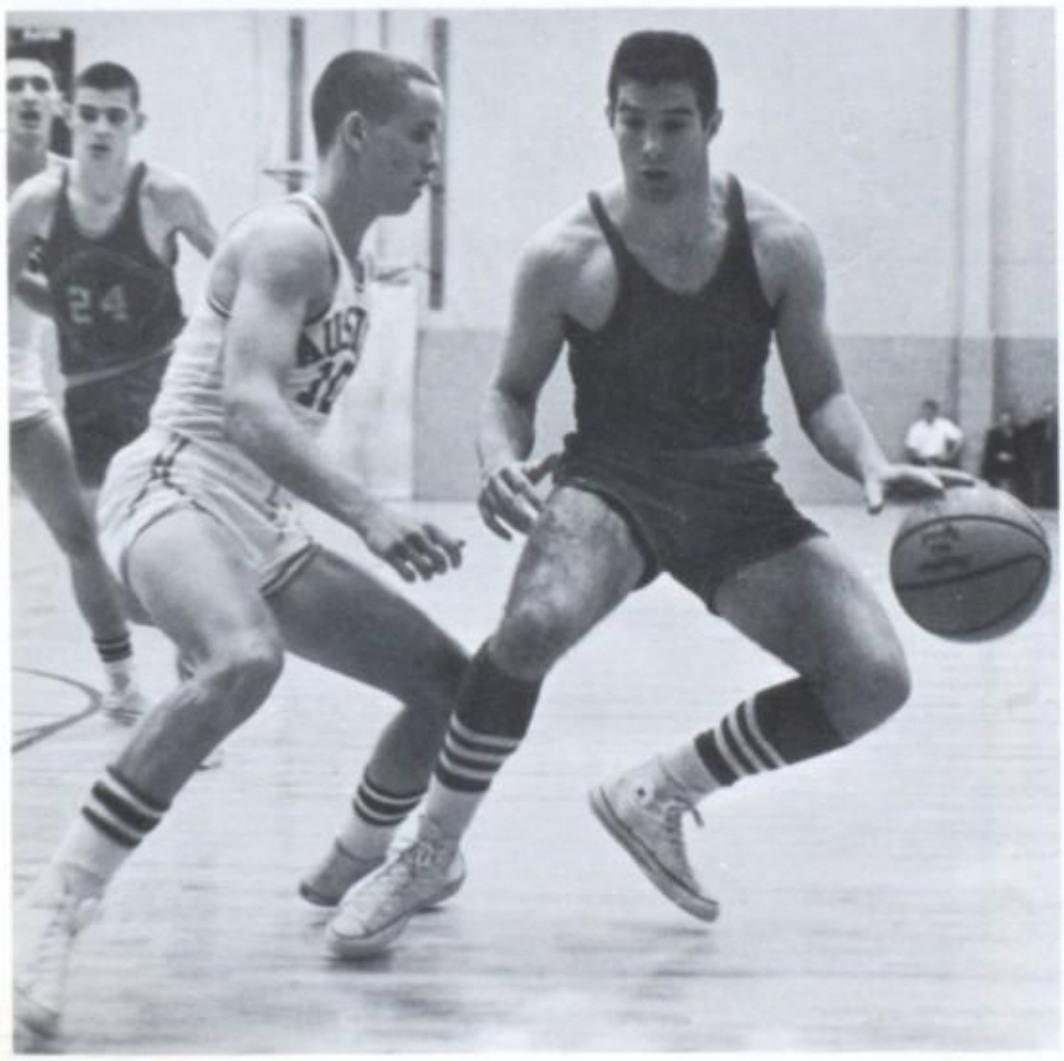
Austin Falls in Quarter-finals

The tight Volunteer defense crashed the highly regarded running game of the S. F. Austin Maroons in the quarter-finals of the state playoffs. The Vols carried away a 68-56 triumph over the Maroons before a packed house at the Southwest Texas State Gym. The first quarter ended with a Lee score of 20-13 with a superior job of rebounding done by the Vol squad. The second period was all Lee, too, as the Maroons never could effectively break through the Lee defense. The halftime buzzer sounded with a red-gray score of 35-23.

The Maroons came back strongly in the second half and came within one point of the Lee cagers with 5:53 left in the contest. This, however, was as close as the Maroons came to a victory as superior work by Danny Sponhaltz under the basket put the Austin crew out of range. The final minutes ended leaving the Lee crowd with a 68-56 victory. All-stater Larry Miller led the scoring with 20 points, and Danny Sponhaltz contributed 16 with a spectacular last-minute closing.

The rebounding work throughout the game told the story of the 68-56 victory.

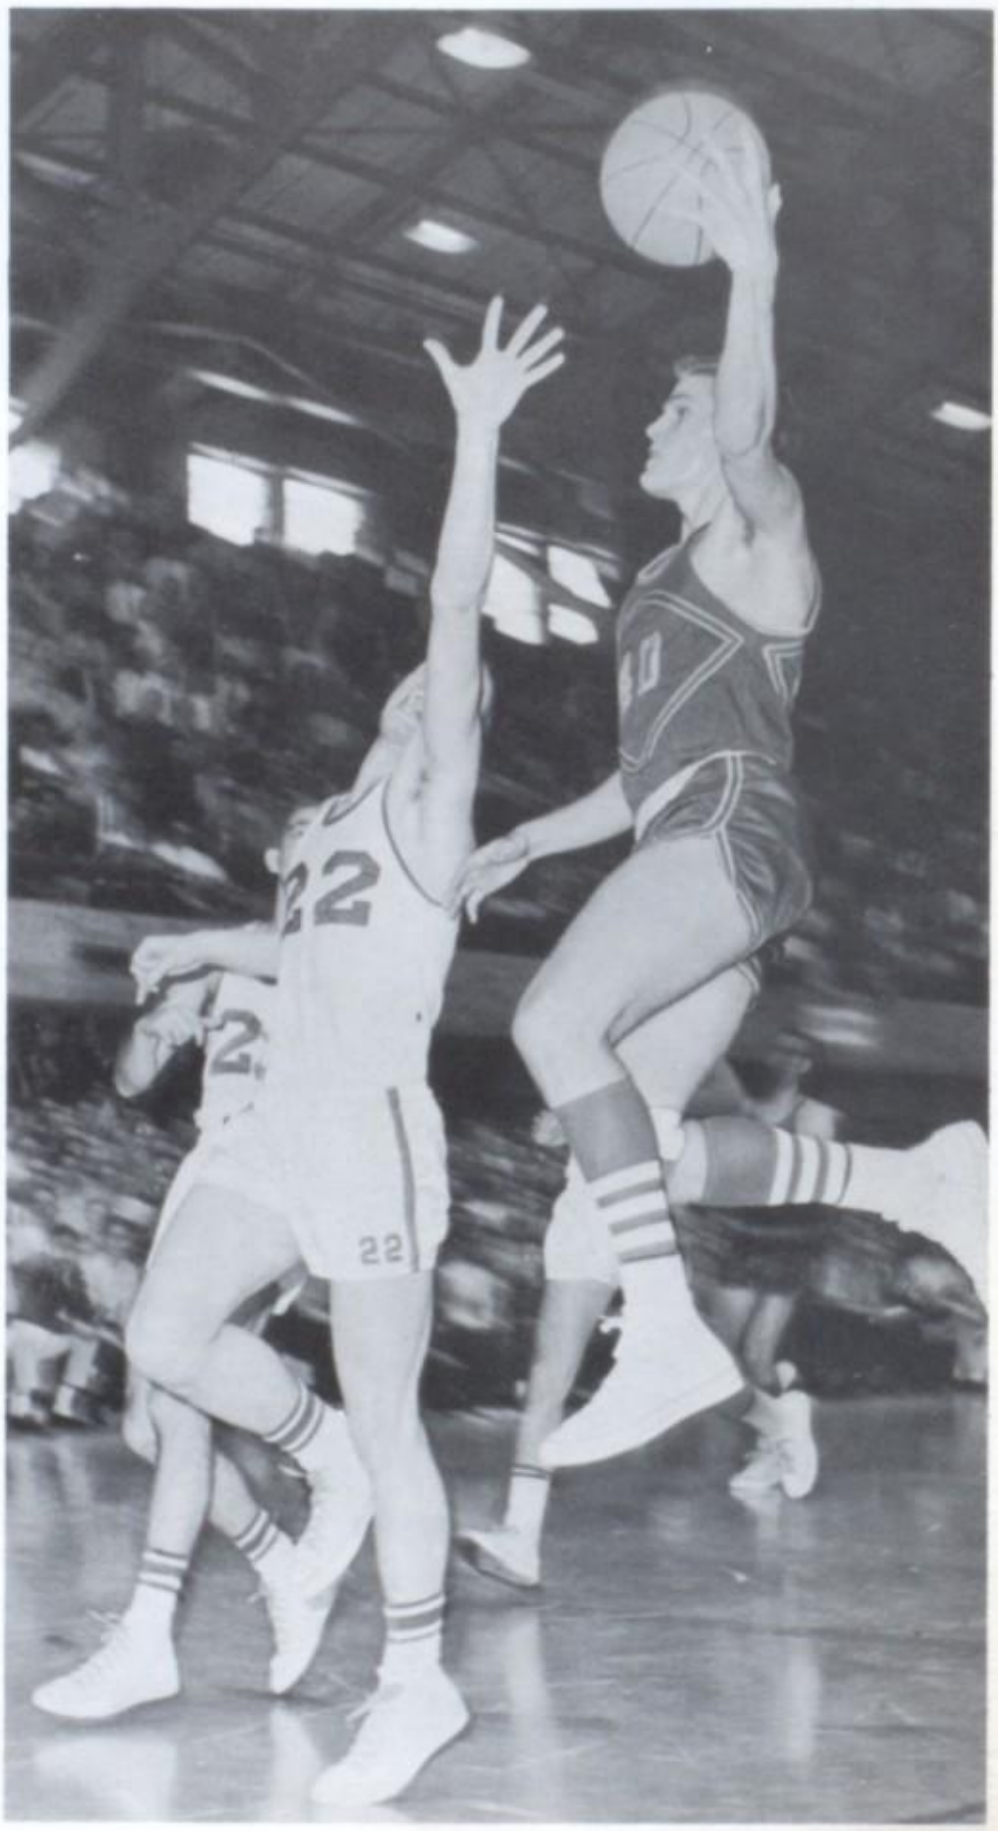


Vol sparkplug Linus Baer eludes Austin defensive ace Doug McIntyre in the quarter-final contest.

Vols Finish Fourth

Lee floorman Linus Baer jumps in to steal the ball in a strong fourth quarter ralley against Adamson.

Senior Larry Miller cruises in for a driving lay-up.



The Leopards of Dallas Adamson starved off a wild outburst of 28 points to hand the Volunteers their first loss in the State Tournament, 62-59. The Leopards had compiled a 48-31 lead at the end of the third quarter, but the rally in the fourth quarter brought the Vols to within one point of the Leopards. The game ended with a pair of free throws for Adamson as they emerged from a near upset.

The Volunteers then returned to Gregory Gym the next morning to tangle with the Fort Worth Haltom Buffs for a bid for third place in the state rankings. The Vols led 19-14 at the end of the first quarter, but trailed 33-31 at the half. The Buffs controlled the third period, but the Volunteers came back strong in the fourth quarter. Lee's outstanding player, Larry Blakley, stole the ball and drove in a lay-up to trim the Buffs' lead to 71-69. The Vols' hopes ended as the opposition dropped in two free shots in the final seconds to hand them their second loss, 73-69.

Lee Nine Travel to State, Capture Third Place Berth

Lee's sandlotters for 1963 hoisted the school's colors at the state tournament for the second straight year. The Volunteers earned the right to advance to the playoffs by downing their district, bi-district, and regional opponents.

Alamo Heights, Harlandale and MacArthur fell before the Rebel onslaught in district competition while Edgewood and Carroll of Corpus were halted in bi-district and regional play. In state playoffs, the Lee nine were defeated by Lufkin, 1-0. In the consolation bracket, the Vols bested Lubbock Monterrey 2-0 to bring home a state third place trophy.

Lee players dominated the all-district team. Steve Arhlelger, Larry Blakley, Tony Brown, Leo Mechler, Larry Rowe, Jim Messer, Johnny Coles, Ricky Buffington, and Linus Baer were given the nod in all-district with Joe Lewallen gaining an all-state berth.

Organizations

Extra-curricular activities offer companionship and a sense of belonging at Lee. There are spirit organizations and clubs ranging from the Future Homemakers to the Future Scientists of America. There are also service clubs like the Band, Lee-Ettes and Student Council; and honorary clubs like the National Honor Society, Quill and Scroll and the Beta Club.

All of these clubs combined form a core of activities where Lee students can display their school spirit.

Officers Launch Council Projects

With seventy-five representatives from every corner of Lee High School, the 1963-64 Student Council activities are aimed at building stronger school spirit.

This year's calendar of activities was lead by Kirk Cameron, president; Emma Lou Brown, vice president; Patty Carpenter, secretary; and Peggy Carpenter, treasurer. Mr. Mike Morrow served his second year as sponsor, and Mr. Cecil Fox his first.

Biggest and most outstanding Council project is the sponsorship of Lee's foreign student program. This year's exchange student, Wenche Hansen, comes to Texas from Norway for a year of study in the States.

The Council, working on a new honor point system this year, launched the school year with a "Howdy Week" including selection of Mr. and Miss Howdy from each class at the culminating dance.

Other activities originating in Council chambers are the annual Spirit Week before the Jeff-Lee football game and the Western Dance during the San Antonio Stock Show and Rodeo. Christmas finds Council members conducting a Christmas card service, and selection of Lee's Homeroom of the Year highlights spring activities.

National Honor Society

Lee again boasts a city-wide first in its Spanish National Honor Society. The society consists of sixteen fourth year Spanish students, and Miss Jo Hestand sponsored the group and instigated its origination.

The formal initiation was held at Canyon Creek Country Club and was attended by Superintendent and Mrs. Virgil T. Blossom and the Panamanian Consulate, Mrs. Elsa Tribble.

The club was represented by President Glenda Burnie at the Pan American Student Congress in Piedras Negras, Mexico. In March, club members attended the PASF state convention in Austin.

End of the year activities included the annual club trip to Piedras Negras and visits to local missions.

Preparing the candles for the candlelight service are (L-R) Linda Reagan, Glenda Burnie, Terry Tamon, Kay Hartong, Judy Ranney, Lee Schleimer and Robert Herbsleb.

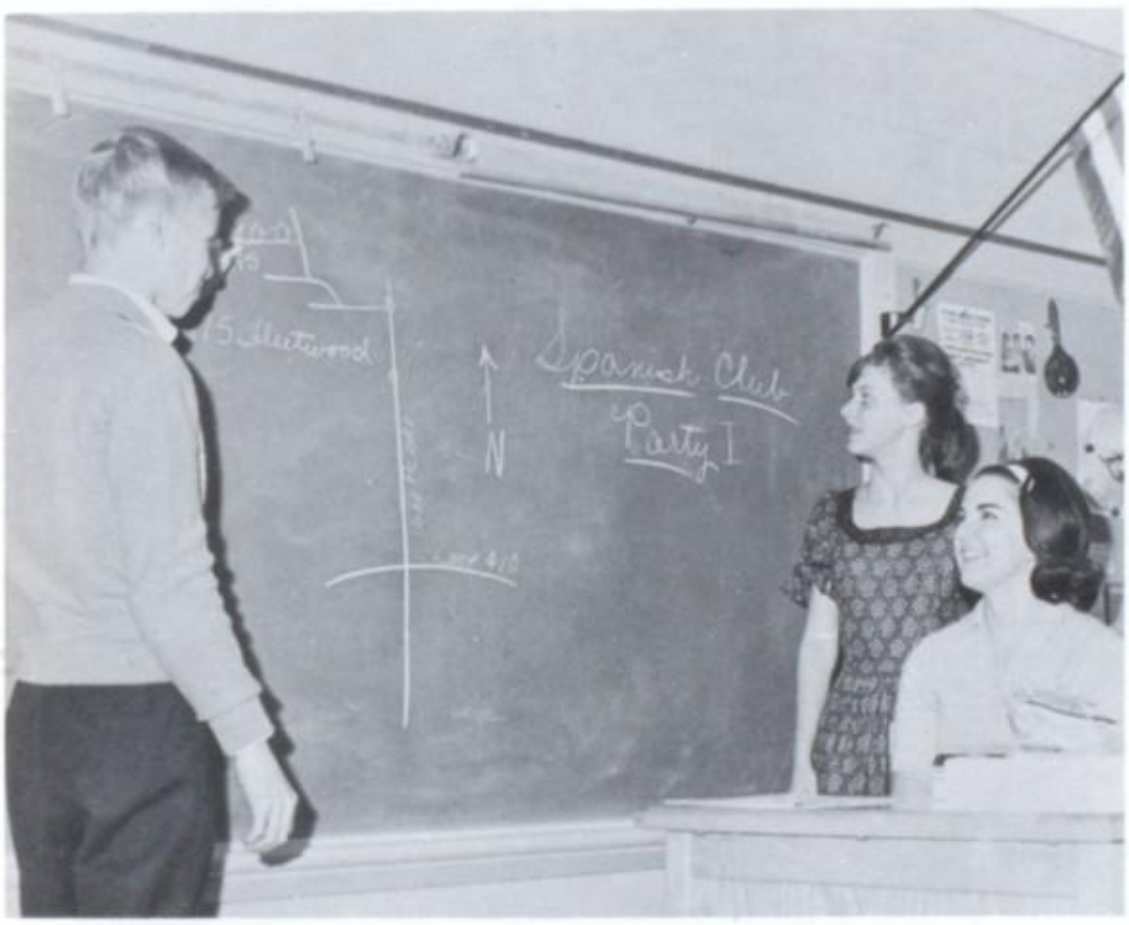
Los Espanoles, Sus Costumbres

Para entender la cultura y la historia de la gente espanol-- is the objective of Lee's Spanish Club. Headed by President Doug Hall and sponsored by Miss Jo Hestand, Miss Martha Taylor and Mrs. Catherine Carson, Spanish Club activities included a Christmas party and a trip to Austin to attend the Pan American Forum Convention. Doug Hall represented Lee's club in Eagle Pass.

Imitating Spanish customs, Christmas party activities included breaking a pinata prepared by Mrs. Simon Utay, and partaking of Spanish delicacies.

Spanish club members listen to Toni Mickey's treasurer report at the bi-weekly meetings.

Craig Stauffer and Jack Hyman read over the Pan-American Times to keep up on PASF activities.



Showing directions to his home, Doug Hall, president, reminds Joan Johnson, secretary and Miss Martha Taylor, sponsor, of the Christmas party.

Springtime brings tennis to campus for G. R. A. members Nancy Franks, Mary Larsen, Ann Bond and Jerry Pate.

Big Year for G.R.A.

Following the bouncing ball... setting up for a spike... trying for a turkey... scoring a seven-love game... these are but a few activities that paced a sports-minded year for the Girls Recreation Association.

Headed by President Kandi Payton, G.R.A. sponsors are Miss Challie Thorton and Miss Beth Walker. The club strives to provide an opportunity for all Lee girls to participate in a variety of sports, recreation and related cultural and social activities.

Alice Edwards checks on equipment for an after school meeting.

Supervising a G.R.A. play session as "back seat drivers" are Miss Beth Walker and Miss Challie Thorton, sponsors.

Diane Leske, Barbara Schimelphfing, Karen Stonaker, Norma Goldstein and Mary Lynn Monaco talk to Mrs. Willda Gafford, part-time nurse.

Spare time activities for Belinda Spector include volunteer work at local hospitals.

FNA Practices Future Skills

To further an interest in nursing, members of the Future Nurses of America visited San Antonio hospitals to gain an insight into the nursing profession.

Club members, under the sponsorship of Miss Janet Stanberry and the presidency of Sharon Bonner, sold Robert E. Lee stationery this year as their fund raising project. Informal speeches by professional nurses highlighted Future Nurses meetings.

Club members (L-R) Sharon Bonner, Belinda Spector, Riba Sikes, Janet Wilson, Paula Riddle, Mary Natham and Norma Goldstein sort and pack Mad Rebel stationery to sell to Lee-ites.

Sharon Bonner, president, Mary Jane Ransdale, secretary, Miss Stanberry, Diane Leske, vice president and Mary Lynn Monaco, treasurer go over the year's schedule for hospital tours.

Forensic League Hosts Tourney

Forensic members admire trophies between debate sessions.

Mr. Charlie Walker, aided by Bill Weatherford and Jack Jennings, registers members of Lee and other active school for the Invitation Speech and Debate Tourney.

President Dick Erdmann and Jack Jennings give information to contestants.

Bringing home a total of four sweepstakes trophies and top awards in oratory, duet acting, debate, and extemporaneous speech, the Forensic League again placed Lee on the Texas map. Directed by Mr. Walker, Forensic Leaguers copped sweepstakes titles at four tournaments.

The Baylor University Speech and Debate Tournament was Lee all the way with Rene Marrou earning first in oratory, Linda Scott and Mike Stevens second in duet acting, Steve Davis third in Extemporaneous speech and Dick Erdmann and Fletcher Clark reaching quarter finals in debate.

Contestants Ilene Shulman, John Payton, and Rick McAlpine rest between debates.

FHA'ers Collect Stamps, Sponsor Dance

Beaux Tom Morgan and Bruce Kemph pin corsages on their mothers at Mother-Daughter Banquet held at Barn Door.

The Lee chapter of the Future Homemakers of America again sponsored the annual Mother-Daughter banquet which was held this year at the Barn Door.

As a service project, FHA collected used postage stamps in order to raise money to aid unfortunate victims of tuberculosis.

Senior beau, Kirk Cameron, is seated with officers Linda Pruitt and Lucille Gregory.

 FHA'ers, Vicki Cunningham, Sharon Uecker and Diane Dunn assist in the T. B. stamp drive.

F.H.A. officers at their installation are (L-R) Diane Dunn; Francis Cohen; Pauline Anderson, president; Jackie Fryar; Jill Thrift; Sandra Anderwald.

Wenche Hanson, honorary F.H.A. member, pins a corsage on her American mother, Mrs. Swerk.

Sponsors of the Future Homemakers of America are (L-R) Miss Barbara Wofford, Mrs. Marilynn Drever and Miss LaNelle Uselton.

School Service

Highlighting the year activities for Key Club members was the annual Leadership Banquet honoring outstanding leaders at Lee. Dr. Virgil T. Blossom, superintendent of North East Independent School District, was guest speaker at the banquet.

Senior Ilene Schulmann reigned as the Key Club's Sweetheart at the annual dance in her honor. Key Clubbers decorated the halls for sports events, sold concessions at drama meets, and planned for vocational guidance materials. The club was represented by delegates at the Texas-Oklahoma District Convention.

The club was led this year by President Steve James and sponsored by Mr. Charles Holden.

Decorating are Key Clubbers Larry Hull, Doug Kanatzar and Peter Williams.

Opti-Misses Reorganize, Model, Choose Beaux

A new name to the Lee campus, the Opti-Misses, under the sponsorship of Miss Phyliss Goodwin and San Antonio Opti-Mrs. Clubs, aim at one service project each month.

Formerly the Y-Teens, Opti-Misses elected beaux Seniors Wilbur "Peppy" Culpepper for the second year, and Gary Kemph.

A Halloween Party at Boysville, and formal initiation ceremonies at the home of Opti-Mrs. member Mrs. John Swope highlighted fall activities. Year-round money-making project of modeling at a local dress shop allowed Opti-Misses a chance to "show off" new clothes and earn club funds at the same time.

The newly named club is headed by President Lou Ann Smith, Vice President Karla Stark, Secretary Susan Ralls and Treasurer Evelyn Ng.

Lou Ann Smith, president, Mrs. Ruth Wright, hostess for the initiation, and Karla Stark, vice president admire scrapbook.

Features

What is it during a school year that makes spirit linger long after high school days are over? This year, the TRAVELER Staff highlights such specialties as Wenche Hansen, foreign student; the Stratford Ball and Western Day. These events contributed to the memories that will remain with every student for the year, 1963-64.

"Grub," Gaiety.

Juniors Sheri Alexander, Brett Williams, Lin Bannowsky and Pam Moorton arrive for a slumber party.

Surprised girls laugh as boys drop in unexpectedly.

Where there is a slumber party there will be boys who will crash it, and such is the case at this "doze" party.

Juniors Brett Williams, Lin Bannowsky, Sheri Alexander and Pam Moorton prepare to spend a night of gossiping and stuffing when Ray Irwin, Gerald Scheppler, Peter Williams, Bobby Chestnut and Ray Boazman arrive.

After a fun-filled evening the boys leave for home but the girls just begin to live it up.

As the evening wears on, appetites grow and a marshmallow roast is in order.

Gossip Highlight Slumber Party

Food!! was the general cry as the boys prepared to raid the refrigerator.

Boys gone, girls gossip far into the night.

Assisted by her brother Joe, Lana Baker pantomimes "Tan Shoes and Pink Shoe Laces."

Fletcher Clark and Jimmy Schulman performed excellent renditions of "A Soalin" and "Morning Train."

Stars Sparkle for

Twenty seven acts took on the theme, "This Could Be the Start of Something Big."

Bordering on professional, the Billy Zinsmeyer's Dance Troupe doing their original exhibition of "The Jigolo" captured first place while Patty and Peggy Carpenter followed a close second with their rendition of "Night Train." Top singing honors went to Ilene Schulman for her medley of "mood" songs. Steve Davis and Jack Jacobs took second place with their versions of "Lonesome Traveler" and "Silver Threads and Golden Needles."

The Senior Class' production of "The Telephone Hour" from the movie "Bye, Bye, Birdie" copped

With Senior Dick Erdmann on drums, his combo placed high in the instrumental category with "Watermelon Man."

The Billy Zinsmeyer Dance Troupe captured first place in the Dance division with their original creation of "The Jigolo."

Sixth Straight Year

first place in the Pantomime slot, while Lana Baker's story of "Tan Shoes and Pink Shoe Laces" came in second. A rocking version of "Wipe Out" by Ronnie Wolma and his group rated a first in the instrumental division. The Dick Erdmann Combo stole second with "Watermelon Man." In the specialty division television commercials were the butt end of the satirical monologue done by Chris Winslow, and Richard Jones received second place honors with a synchronized trampoline act.

Jim Schulman and Fletcher Clark's medley of "A'Soalin" and "Morning Train" took the coveted "Best Overall Act" award.

Combining Lee-Jeff talents, Steve Davis and Jack Jacobs teamed up to take second in the singing division.

Fire batons captured the attention of the audience in Marsha Murphy's number.

Wenche Trys on "Teen" Title During Year of Study at Lee

Wenche attends a tea at the North East Central Office honoring the foreign exchange students from MacArthur, Alamo Heights and Lee.

Sharing in KP duty is one of Wenche's household chores.

Showing forth their artistry in the Talent Show, Wenche and Gloria pantomime "Sisters."

This year, Wenche Hansen, a foreign exchange student from Mysen, Norway, was welcomed as the second foreign student to attend Lee. Wenche, an eighteen year old blond, is staying with Junior Gloria Swerk and her family.

Life at Lee is quite hectic for Wenche, and it keeps her hopping. Besides participating in the annual Lee Talent Show, she is a member of the Lee-Ette Drill Squad. "In Lee-Ettes I meet many girls and I have a sense of belonging to something and this is the most important thing," stated Wenche. She is also a member of the tennis team and FHA.

In addition to school functions, Wenche has become acquainted with United States family traditions and activities.

Being a Lee-Ette enables Wenche to participate in school spirit activities.

Wenche, escorted by Bill Nichols, attends the Howdy Dance where she was introduced to Lee-ites.

Wenche and the Swerks enjoy a typical backyard barbecue.

Recording Star's Visit Spotlights Lee-ites

Ronnie Wolma and the Original Epics performed while autographed pictures were handed out in the mall at Wonderland.

During a luncheon, Joe Winkelmann discusses with Bobby Vee his rise to stardom as Kay Hartong and Peg Barry listen with questions in mind.

Teens on the ball are (L-R) Joe, Bobby, Judy Whittington, Miss Teenage San Antonio, and Robert Redgrave.

A visit by singing star Bobby Vee brought many Lee-ites into the spotlight.

Mr. Vee, who was sponsored by the Teen Fair of Texas, met with students for lunch, interviews and pictures. Robert Redgrave was the host for a luncheon which included a press conference for San Antonio papers; and Joe Winkelmann, Bugle Call editor, interviewed Mr. Vee for a special Hi-Notes feature while Doug Kanatzar represented Lee's photographic staff.

Western Spirit Rouses Lee-ites

Western hombres Miguel Najar, Travis Sebera, Tom O'Brien, Mark Schreiber and Pat Greenwell yell "more" as Mark Rensmeyer refills their glasses with root beer.

Sandy Laechlin, Lana Baker, Mark Schreiber, Carol Roberts, Miguel Najar, Tom O'Brien, Glenda Burnie, Vicki Cunningham and Travis Sebera gather around the bar as bartender Mark Rensmeyer fills the mugs.

When the rodeo hit San Antonio Western Day hit Lee. Lee-ites decked out in all types of western apparel carpeted the campus. Signs such as the chuck wagon and the water hole added to the spirit of the old west.

Thespian Debut Portrays

René Marrou, holding the mask of God, gives the symbol of Satan to Richard Jones.

A first for Lee, the Thespians fall production of "J.B." by Archibald McLeish, brings out human emotions seldom rendered in high school plays. The Pulitzer Prize winning drama is actually a play within a play. It depicts the story of Job, a character in the Old Testament, who refused to forsake God, despite hardships cast upon him by Satan.

The production features Bob Berkman as J.B., Rene Marrou as Zuss, Kay Keel as J.B.'s wife and Richard Jones as Nickles. Zuss and Nickles play the part of faded actors who take on double characters portraying God and Satan.

The play takes place simultaneously in a circus ring, in heaven and on earth and was directed by Mr. Charlie Walker.

Three comforters, Dick Erdmann, John Payton, and Jim McGaffigan put on a "devil may care" attitude while philosophizing that nothing really matters.

Modern Biblical Tragedy

The press, portrayed by Lynda Scott, Bob McCoy and Bill Hamrick, are posed to scoop J.B. and wife Sara's emotions when told of their childrens' death.

Kay Keel, portraying Sara, J.B.'s wife, is being comforted by J.B. after a seemingly endless line of tragedies.

Minutes after the tragic blast, Civil Defense workers Bill Hamrick and Bob McCoy stand helplessly by as J.B. caresses the limp hand of his wife.

Snowy Weather Puts 'Frosty' Together

Lee-ites plunge into "Old Man Winter."

When "Frosty" arrived at Lee he received a hearty welcome. Lee-ites went berserk over this unusual "visitor." The only way to avoid getting hit by a snowball between classes was to stay inside--but who wants to stay in when it is snowing at Lee.

Even girls enjoy romping in the snow.

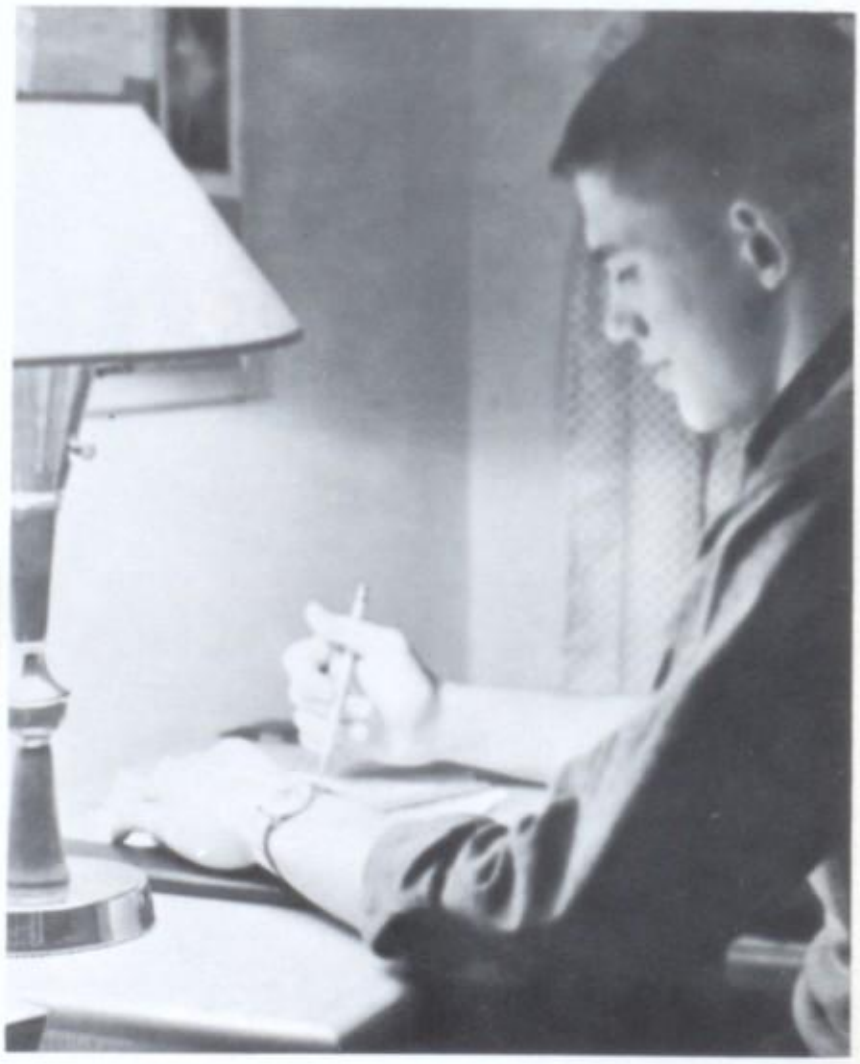
Next to throwing snowballs, building snowmen is the most fun.

Garbed in Eskimo style is Lynda Scott.

The last bits of this snowman come to a gluttonous end.

Bruce 35, and Gary 15, teamed up to make Lee District Champs.

Another favorite sport, hunting, brings Bruce to admire Gary's gun trophy.



Gary and Bruce hit the books at the end of the school day to keep up their scholastic ideals.

Deer and cats--two of Gary's best friends.

A relaxing moment for the Kemph family brings Bruce, Mr. Kemph, Mrs. Kemph and Gary together.

Lee Boasts Versatile Brothers

It's not often that a school has two boys that can excell in all phases of school life--much less brothers, namely Gary and Bruce Kemph.

The boys project the "ideal brother image," having many things in common. Both are wizards in sports, school and extra-curricular activities.

Favorites with their classmates, teachers, and team-mates make them outstanding leaders. Any person is proud to have both or either as a friend.

Getting "little" brother to move and give up the phone is a big task for Gary.

Lee-ites feast at the chow line.

Every Year Is Leap Year At FHA's Backwards Dance

The boldness that sparked the old West was unfurled at the Backwards Dance sponsored annually by the Future Homemakers of America.

Marryin' Sam, the best corsage contest and the dance competition were the features that added to the authentic atmosphere of checkered table cloths, chuck wagons and saddles.

The medley of western ballads was provided by Lee Harmon and the Harmonaires.

Cowboys Clown at Dixie Hoe Down

Bill Fish, Terry Bartoli, Anna-Marie Verstegen, Diane Leske and John Montanye gaze at the wanted poster on the jail.

Lee-ites enjoy dancing to music by the "Circle C."

The 1963-64 varsity football squad was honored by the Lee-Ette Dixie Hoe Down. The western theme was carried through with the jail, the wishing well and the hanging tree. Music by the "Circle C" added to the atmosphere.

Hoe Downers Pat Rudewick, Harold Reed, Gary Glass, and Sherry Blakley, "Stuff" at the wishing well.

Fanciful Exaggeration Fills Spring Production

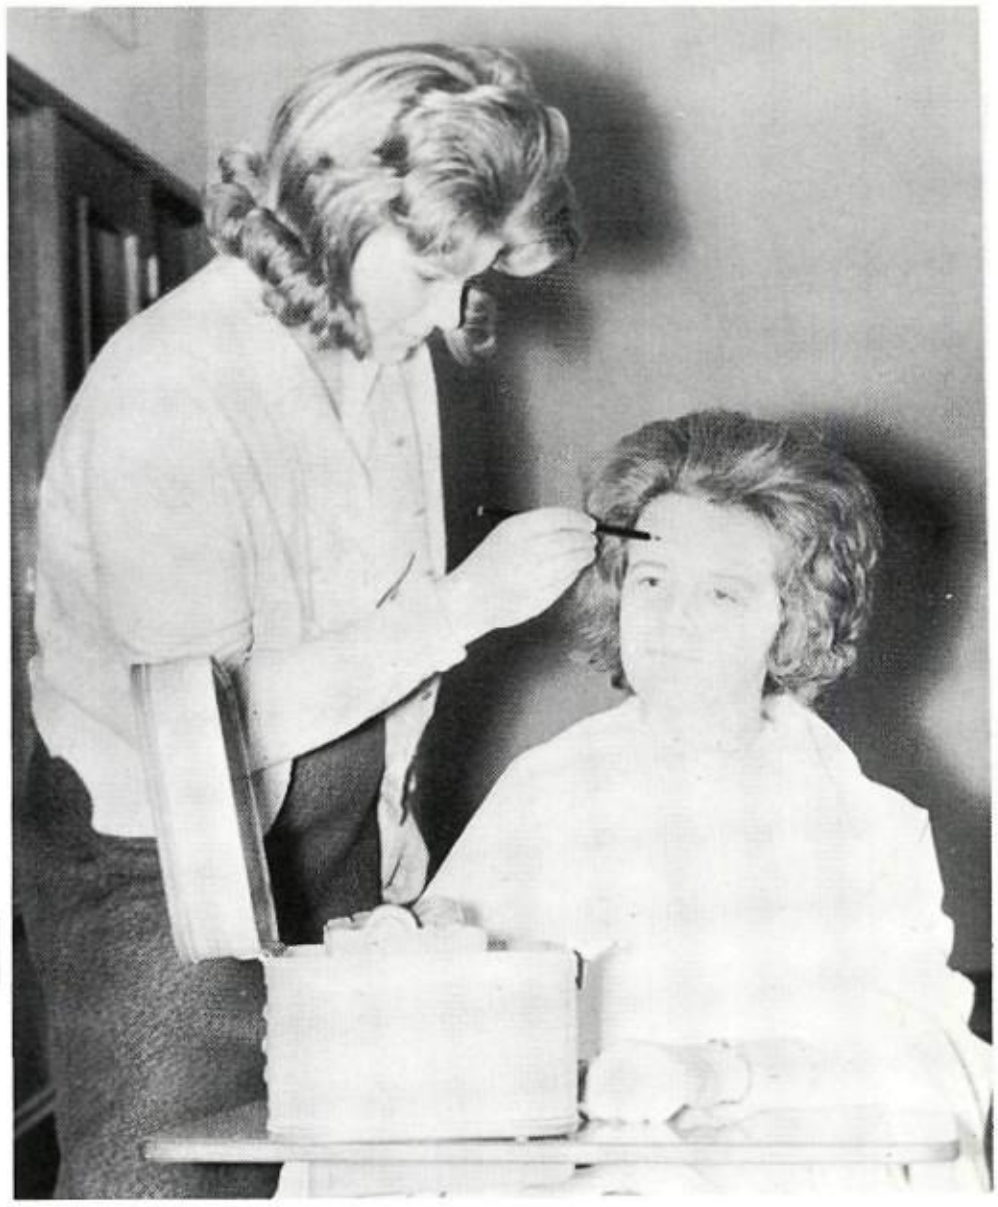
Mike Stevens became a groomsman for the wedding scene.

"I'm sick," was all Homer, John Payton said in the play.

Ronnie Eads played one of twelve butlers who announced the dream characters.

The dreams had by Neal MacRae, the lead role acted by Richard Jones, was the basis of the play.

The George Kaufman-Marc Connelly fantasy "Beggar on Horseback" was the Thespian spring production selection. "This breezy harumscaum travesty" revolves around the dreams of Neal MacRae, a young composer portrayed by Richard Jones. The three act play has twenty scenes and only the first and last settings take place in the world of reality. The play was directed by Mr. Charlie Walker.



Mrs. Cady, Dinah Denson, acquires her wrinkles for the mother role with the assistance of Sylvia Cassil.

Joy Wyatt holds a king-size pencil in an exaggerated dream scene.

"Yep, yep," became familiar lines to Jim McGaffigan, who portrayed Mr. Cady.

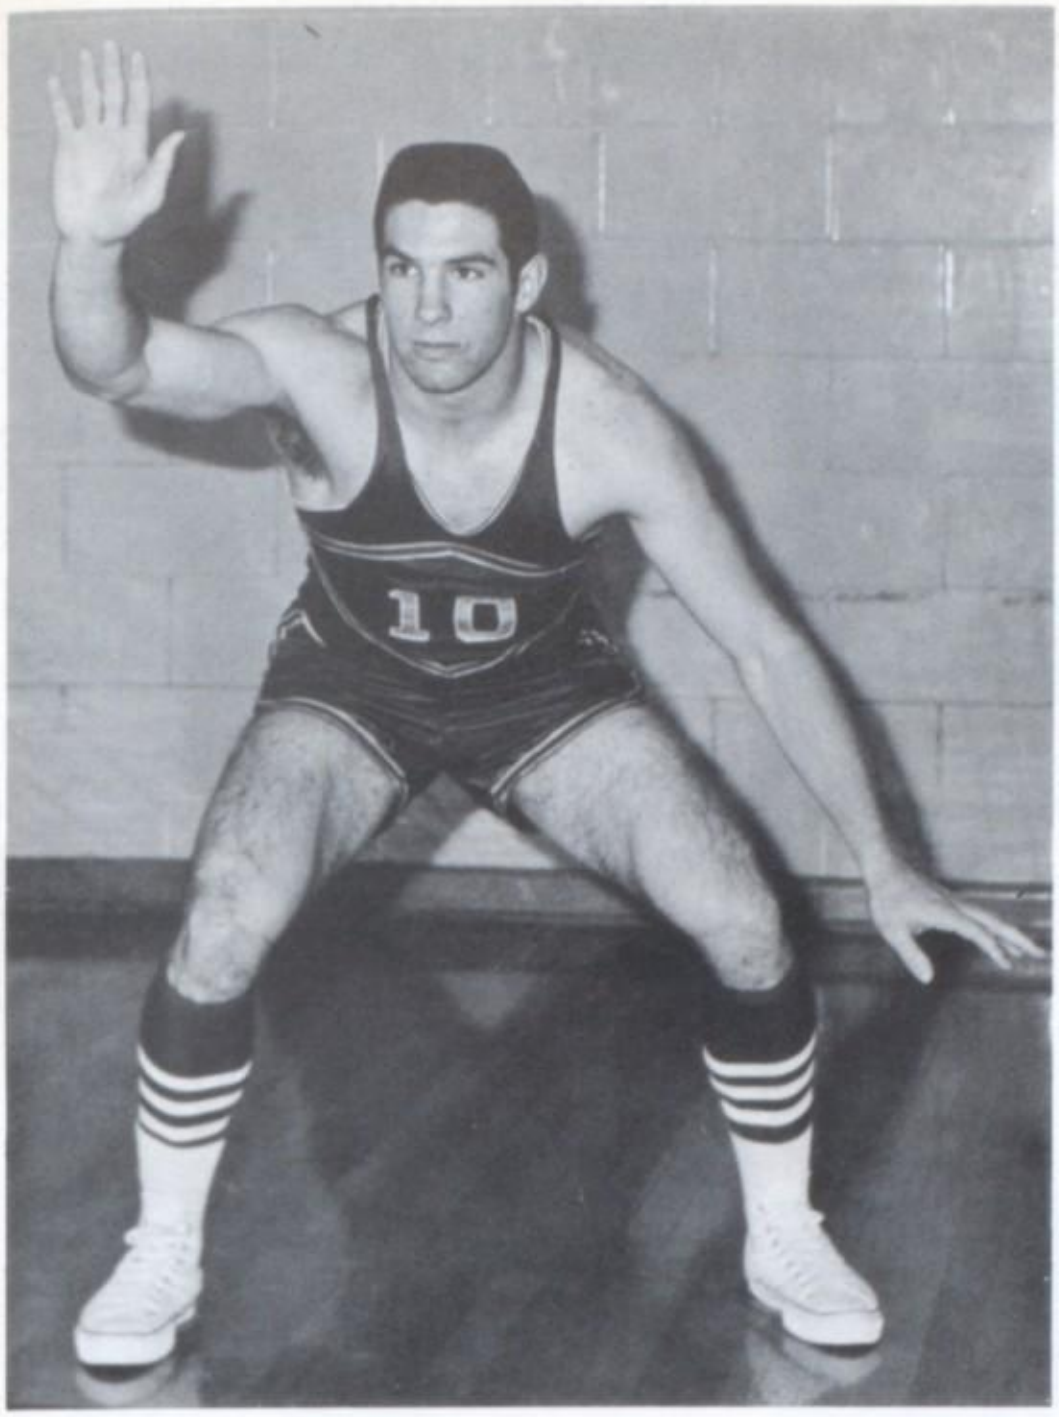
Pumping arms and surging legs help develop speed in the four-year track letterman.



Hitting the net for more than 1,000 points in his four year career Linus has racked up all-district honors.

Superlative Linus Baer--the athlete of a thousand talents. Adjectives must be re-used to describe the remarkable Linus, the only four-year grid starter Lee has had or ever will.

In winning 13 letters in four sports, Linus has compiled over an incredible 1,500 points in football and basketball--far and away the greatest total of any graduating athlete in 1964,

In football he was Lee's first All-American and All-State first-string athlete. He ranked All-City for two years and gained All-District berths all four years. Two years in a row his teammates awarded him the honored title of Most Valuable Player.

In basketball he amazed and amused fans with his antics and talents. For sheer color on a court, he had no match.

In baseball and track he was equally talented, a member of the sprint relay team and starting outfielder for the Lee Nine. He proved his dual abilities by competing in both these spring sports simultaneously, and if need be on the same day.

No greater tribute can be given Baer but to say he is the athlete's athlete. He is beyond comparison on the level of high school competition and his amazing talent is coupled with a temperament not accorded many athletes.

Lightning Linus Baer, Lee's first All-American, paced the Volunteer football team to quarter-finals.

This great jersey is symbolic of another great year. Lee has been heralded during 1963-64 as a giant in sports and scholastic standings.

Even though the class of 1964 is graduating, it won't be the end of a "Spirited" year for them. For memories will remain and serve as a basis for renewed spirit.

With the close of this spirited year, a year of tradition, the Seniors look to the undergraduates to keep up the spirit and keep Lee in the headlines.

Kay Hartong
Editor-in-Chief.
